Special Events and Marketing Coordinator Julia Larson stated, "Seeing that the popularity of craft beer is on the rise in the Midwest, our Special Event committee decided on having a craft beer tasting event. They thought it would be unique and interesting for the community as well as a good fundraiser for the club.'

The event will have craft beer tasting, delicious hors d'oeuvres, a silent auction, high stakes games, Club Mis-sion Moments and live music by the Lewis and Clark Jazz Quintet led by local musician Scott Olson.

Sheila Woodward, a member of the Special Events committee, stated, "We are very excited to be having quality brews from New Belgium, Boulevard, Goose Island and Grand Teton at the event. State Historical Society Awards Grant To Tyndall Carnegie Library

PIERRE — The City of Tyndall re-cently received a matching grant for the Tyndall Carnegie Library from the South Dakota State Historical Society, as announced by Jay D. Vogt, director of the society.

The $6,500 grant will be used to repair historic windows and install storm windows to improve efficiency.

In 1913 the Tyndall Improvement Association, a women's civic organization, began collecting books for a future library. With a grant from Andrew Carnegie, their library was built in 1917. It was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1984. Still functioning as a library, the Spanish/Craftsmanstyle brick building has changed little in 96 years. "This is the 16th year for this historic preservation grants program," Vogt said. "In 2012 we awarded over $106,700 between 12 projects which will result in a total public-private invest-ment of over $233,500. This program is designed to encourage restoration or rehabilitation of historic properties and is one more way we can promote and protect our history and culture."

The grants are awarded through the State Historical Society's Deadwood Fund grant program. Funding for the program is from Deadwood gaming revenue earmarked by state law for historic preservation projects throughout the state. The program is administered by the State Historic Preservation Office at the Cultural Heritage Center in Pierre.

The following other projects received grants:

• Dallas: Dallas Carnegie Library, $4,000 for foundation repair;

• Dell Rapids: Smith Block, $10,000 for storefront rehabilitation work on windows, corner staircase, exterior foyer, and pressed-metal ceiling;

• Fairburn: Fairburn Hotel, $15,000 for foundation repair; • Hot Springs: Hot Springs City Hall,

$9,000 for foundation repair;

Sioux Falls: The History Club, $8,200 for rehabilitation of historic windows:

 Sisseton: Stavig House Museum, $10,000 for stabilization of the historic front porch and brick chimney;

Deadwood Fund grants are awarded twice a year, with grant application deadlines of Feb. 1 and Oct. 1. That figure jumped to about seven prisoners per day last year and soared to 10 prisonexperience, Henery said. Janecek joined the sheriff's office in 1981. She has seen a number of 911 upgrades - both hardware and software — during her tenure.

In addition, many people have discontinued their land line phones and have switched to using only a cell phone, Janecek said. "Once you drop your land line, less money goes into the 911 fund (from that source)," she

The process will be to oil the road and cover it with 3/8inch rock chips. The streets will be closed to traffic during the seal coat process and opened to traffic immediately after the application. After one week, the street sweeper will pick up the excess chips that are still loose.

'No Parking" signs will be placed on the streets the day before they are sealed. The public is asked to observe these signs and do not park on the streets until the work is done. Also, do not blow grass onto the street before the streets are sealed or permit underground irrigation systems to run water onto the streets while the No Parking signs are up.

In the event of rain, the process may be postponed.

on both the 911 dispatch and jail have resulted in larger staff, Henery said.

"Currently, we have a total of nine dispatchers/jailers, four full-time deputies, two part-time deputies and the sheriff," he said. "That's an increase of two dispatchers/jailers and two part-time deputies compared to what it used to be.

The dispatch/jail staff averages two persons, generally with one for the jail and one for the dispatch, Henery said. However, the staff ranges from one to three persons, depending on the time of day and the workload. "We have more staff, and
