Hastings Teams Picked To Win GPAC Soccer

SIOUX CITY, Iowa — The men's and women's soccer teams from Hastings College were each selected as preseason favorites in the Great Plains Athletic Conference, according to a vote by league coaches

Hastings (12-7-1) went 9-0-1 in women's league play last season, advancing to the NAIA Opening Round. The Broncos received 10 of 11 first-place votes, with Doane, which ranked second, receiving the other.

The Hastings men (16-7) went 9-1 to win regular season and tournament titles in the league a year ago. Midland received the other first-place

Mount Marty was picked last in both polls

MMC Baseball Signs JC Pitcher

Dakota Kirkman of Exeter, Calif., a transfer from Porterville College, will attend Mount Marty College and play baseball for the Lancers this school year, the institution announced.

Kirkman, a right-handed pitcher, made 13 appearances for Porterville a year ago, recording a 5.97 earned-run average with two saves. He also made 13 appearances as a freshman, recording a 2.86 ERA.

In high school, Kirkman went 5-4 with a 0.74 ERA as a senior, striking out 42 batters in 40 innings. For his efforts he was named 2nd Team All-Central Sequoia League and 1st Team All-Orange Belt League.

"Dakota was a huge find for the program. I was able to watch Dakota workout at a tryout in Santa Barbara, Calif., earlier this summer while I was working a camp for MVP Baseball," said MMC head baseball coach Andy Bernatow. "I came away very impressed with his pitching abilities. He showed command of three pitches and worked both sides of the strike zone. Pitching has been a maior priority of this recruiting class. Dakota will help make the pitching staff better right away. I am excited to get him to campus, he should be a great fit for the team."

Dakota is the son of Kevin Kirkman and Staci Phillips. Dakota plans to major in criminal justice and will receive an academic incentive scholarship in addition to his athletic baseball scholarship at

Kachena Earns Academic

Honor SKILLMAN, N.J. - Yankton graduate and Augustana women's tennis player Gabrielle Kachena was one of five Vikings' players that were named ITA All-Academic scholar athletes, according to an announcement by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association on Tuesday. The team was also recogni azed as an All-Academic Team.

In order to be named an ITA scholar athlete, the athletes were required to have a 3.5 grade point average while earning a varsity letter. Teams distinguished with All-Academic team honors required a 3 20 cumulative GPA

The Vikings put together another season filled with championships. For the fourth consecutive season, Augustana took home the regular-season Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference champi onship, this time with a perfect 12-0 record. The Vikings' undefeated season is part of an active streak of 43 consecutive NSIC regular-season match wins

Five Vikings also grabbed academic honors from the NSIC by earning All-Academic honors from the conference.

"Probably the most important thing is we had 11 guvs on the field every time. That's the hardest part,' Toub said. "You have so much turnover and so many guys you want to look at. But I was really happy with the way the guys responded. It's a pretty good start."

Toub brings a unique perspective to the job of coaching special teams.

He spent time as a strength coach early in his career, and then was a defensive line coach at Missouri in the late '90s. But for the past 13 years, Toub has been dedicated solely to special teams, working with Reid in Philadelphia before joining the Bears

'The thing with him is he's a guy who really, really loves special teams," McCluster said, "and he knows if he can get 11 guys on the kickoff return, punt return, whatever it may be, we can be game changers, and special teams can win games.'

from 2004-12.

It's not as if Chiefs special teams have been useless the past few years. Ryan Succop has been a dependable kicker, and Dustin Colquitt is coming off a Pro Bowl season that landed him a five-year, $18.75 million contract that includes nearly $9 million guaranteed. "I think people are saying, 'Oh no! Dave is in Kansas City," Colquitt said. "He's holding us accountable don't make the same mistake twice, that's what he believes in. He likes to keep it simple, and he wants guys to play
