

LEFT: Judge Colton Buss of Lennox asks questions of Mission Hill Hillers club member Katie Freng during the beef show. Livestock events kept the show ring busy throughout Achievement Days' three-day run; CENTER: Yankton County 4-Hers got an early start to Achievement Days by entering static exhibits and getting weigh-ins for their livestock. Two visitors check out one of the early entries; RIGHT: 4-H projects require not only the work but also knowledge about the process and the ability to communicate that knowledge. Here, judge Sara Berg (left) of South Dakota State University in Brookings conducts an interview with Clever Clovers club member Madison Fairley of Gayville. Another judge, Pearl Gaidelis with the Clay County 4-H office in Vermillion, works with an entry in the background. (Emily Niebrugge/P&D)
