S.D. HS Baseball Announces All-State, Academic All-State Honors

SIOUX FALLS — The South Dakota High School baseball league has announced its all-state and academic all-state honorees for the 2013 spring season.

In Class A, Yankton's Zach Benjamin and Tanner Termanson were second-team honorees at pitcher. Lane Sawatzke was an honorable mention selection as an infielder.

In Class B, Bon Homme pitcher Ross Kortan was a first-team selection. Vermillion's Collin Bertram (OF) and Tanner Anderson (OF), Dakota Valley's Andrew Prochello (SS) and Isaac Faldmo (1B), Bon Homme's Chase Kortan (SS) and Parkston's Jacob Weber (P) were selected to the second team. Honorable mention selections included Bon Homme's Kodi Larson (CF), Parkston's Spencer Lucas (1B) and Vermillion's Ty Iverson (C) and Colin Olson (P).

Academic all-state honorees included Matthew Randall, Drew Turnis and Connor Kuipers of Platte-Geddes-Dakota Christian-White Lake; Ryan Alley of Parkston; Logan Hunter of Beresford; Jacob Bloch and Alec Weber of Bon Homme; Bertram, Tanner Settles and Anderson of Vermillion; and Brock Zeller of Elk Point-Jefferson.

Reeves kicked away an open look for the visiting Ramblers.

"We came out with great focus, great intensity, but we didn't connect on many passes," Green said. "It was like we forgot we had another half to play."

Adding that her team has a 3.5 grade point average, Green added, "I told them, 'We didn't play super smart.'"

Even a change in formation after the first period didn't produce a goal for the Coyotes, who were out-shot 10-3 in the second period. USD was then held without a shot in the two overtime periods.

"We had a lot of chances, but couldn't put those shots away," Sparkman said. "At least we're getting more opportunities; creating more of them."

Those chances were, at least, a sign of progression from last year, Sparkman added. USD boasts eight sophomores, 10 juniors and one senior (Jenny Teslow) from a team that was 2-13-3 last season.

"We're definitely getting better," Sparkman said. "The next step is putting them (shots) away."

The Coyotes will have that chance on Sunday at 1 p.m. when they host Iowa State. Having the Cyclones come to Vermillion marks the first BCS conference team to do so during USD's Division I soccer era.

Iowa State, of the Big 12 Conference, blanked the Coyotes 7-0 last season in Ames, Iowa.

"It's really good competition for us, to see that next level," Sparkman said. "Now we can see if we can keep up with them."

Vin Scully To Return To Dodgers Booth In 2014

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vin Scully, one of baseball's most beloved broadcasters, will return to the Los Angeles Dodgers for a record 65th season in 2014.

"I can tell you from the bottom of my heart that I have always felt that I am the most ordinary of men who was given an extraordinary break of doing what I love to do at a very early age," Scully said on Friday. "I pray that I'll be allowed to do it for at least one more year."

"As far as I'm concerned, it could have been one line in the note sheet tonight. But I don't take any of it for granted in any way, shape or form. I know that this miracle was given to me, and I could lose it in 30 seconds between the time I leave here and go up to the booth. I'm just so blessed to be doing what I love to do and full of thanks."

The 85-year-old Scully said he is quite impressed by what the new ownership group has brought to the Dodgers, along with the energy fans are creating at the ballpark. The club has surged from last place in the NL West to a lead of 9 1-2 games.

"I do think that the success of the team had something to do with it," Scully said. "These last 50 games, coming to the ballpark and watching them pull out some miraculous victories, it was so thrilling — even for someone who had seen however many games I've seen before."

"It became so much excit-
