ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO
Wednesday, August 31, 1938
• A Yankton high school graduate, George Sheldon Adams, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Adams, has received a four year tuition scholarship at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. The young man, just entering his 18th year, was graduated from Yankton high school last June and will take up his work, pursuing a pre-med course, early in September.
• Opening what promises to be an unusually active season among the younger set installation of officers was held in an impressive ceremony at the Masonic Temple Monday night when a new roster of workers was installed by the Bethel of Jobs Daughters in Yankton. Elaine Gurney gives Sceptre of Jobs Daughters Honored Queen to Ruth Ann Pederson.
50 YEARS AGO
Saturday, August 31, 1963
• No matter where you live or what your means of livelihood, you're going to have something in common with tens of thousands of other South Dakotans during the week ahead. That's the promise of State Fair officials on the eve of the 79th annual exposition, tabbed by the management as "the State Fair that offers something for everybody."
• The Yankton Jaycees made their third and last "arrest" of this season Friday afternoon in the chapter's "Arrest 'em and guest 'em" program. Mr. and Mrs. David Friesen, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, were "arrested" by Duane Enzi, project chairman; Ron Heuer and Ted Blakey, Jaycees riding in a police car, driven by Officer Frank Arneson.
25 YEARS AGO
Wednesday, August 31, 1988
• A Mission Hill man has purchased the Dakota Theatre, a Yankton landmark. Robert Jensen has purchased the Dakota Theatre from Commonwealth Theaters, Inc. Kansas City, Mo. Jensen, owner of Jensen's Steel and Pipe, Inc., Yankton, said he has no definite plans for the building at the present time. The theatre was closed in May, 1982. It reopened for a brief period in 1985.
• David Larsen, son of Roger and Betty Larsen, is excited to start his missionary adventure. Larsen leaves for California today and will then go to Tokyo on Sept. 3, where he will be stationed. The program is sponsored through Life Ministries.

DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT
Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210.
DAILY RECORD POLICY
The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.
It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.
