Diabetes Support Group Meets Aug. 11

The next Yankton Area Diabetes Support meeting will be Aug. 11 at 1 p.m. on the Avera Sacred Heart Campus, Pavilion, conference room 2.

Kim Neuhallen will demonstrate how to use the AveraChart patient portal, and Susan Barnes RN CDE will discuss important diabetes lab tests.

Everyone is welcome. You do not have to have diabetes to attend. If you are interested, Kim will help you sign up for AveraChart patient portal. A snack will be provided.

Crest Road Closing Slated

Crest Road, the road that crosses the Gavins Point Dam will be closed from 8 a.m. Monday, Aug. 11, through 3:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 15. This closure will include nighttime hours.

The public is asked to plan on an alternate route of travel during this time.

The closure is a result of the inspection, repair and painting of the spillway gates at Gavins Point Dam.

There will be periodic closures throughout duration of the construction, which will continue into the fall.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO

Tuesday, August 8, 1939

- Yankton county's weed control demonstration, sponsored by the agricultural committee of the local Chamber of Commerce, will be held on Wednesday, August 16, beginning at 1:30 p.m. on the Francis Donohoe farm about two miles north of Yankton on the Douglas avenue road.
- The preliminary hearing of Floyd Munds, who was recently returned from Washington state to this county to face charges of missappropria-tion of funds from Binder Brothers, for whom he worked as a salesman and collector for a considerable period, will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock before Justice Fred S. Vaughan.

50 YEARS AGO

Saturday, August 8, 1964

- Bule Creek and Green Creek were the two watershed projects visited in Union county by invited businessmen and farmers in the Yankton community Thursday, August 6.

• It will cost an estimated $212,620,000 to bring the interstate highway system to completion in South Dakota by 1972, the Associated Press learned today.

25 YEARS AGO

Tuesday, August 8, 1989

- Police and ambulance workers worked for about 20 minutes Monday night trying to free Allen Ober, 43, of Bloomfield, Neb. from his car. Ober, his wife and two children were pulling out of the K-Mart parking lot when they were struck by a motorcycle traveling north on U.S. Highway 81.
- Judging at the 4-H Achievement Days is, above all, a learning experience for the youth, said fourth-year foods judge Doris Held of Yankton. Held and judges in Home Living, Bread, Dairy Foods, Wood Science and Child Development categories interviewed 4-H members who lined up in front of their tables Monday night. They asked questions, gave suggestions and awarded ribbons for almost three hours.

participate in the project have a chance to win YAA gear. The project ends Aug. 13.

Amsberry also plans to hold more events such as the Meridian Diner en Blanc YAA hosted at the Meridian Bridge July 19. The event saw 200 guests dressed in all white attire. A French cuisine was served under candle-light and live music was played.

"It was a beautiful turnout on a beautiful night. I have clients that went and said that they wished it lasted longer," Amsberry said. "We have gotten a lot of positive feedback. We would like to have more events like this. It's a good way to get our name out there."

Amsberry encourages everyone to participate in YAA events. You don't have to be an artist to appreciate what YAA has to offer.

"Yankton Area Arts is more than just painting and drawing. I grew up with music, band and theater. Those are my arts," she said. "I believe that once you have an appreciation for an art form, you will be able to appreciate all art forms."

As the new director, Amsberry challenges supporters to advocate for YAA to simply bring a friend to the groups next event.

"There are a lot of people that know who we are and what we do," she said. "I would like to challenge them to bring a friend to our First Friday events. Or bring a friend to Riverboat Days and the Summer Arts Festival and support the artists that are down there and stop by our booth. Bring a friend and stop by the gallery. Just bring a friend so more people know who we are and what we do."
