Getz Edges Mingo For SDGA Title
HARTFORD — South Dakota State's Hallie Getz beat teammate Megan Mingo by five strokes for top honors in the South Dakota Golf Association's Women's Amateur Championships, which concluded on Sunday at Central Valley Golf Course in Hartford.
 Getz shot a three-day score of 225 (76-73-76) to beat Mingo (79-76-75), who tied Karla Cotton of Sioux Falls for low round on Sunday. Cotton and Julie Jansa, also of Sioux Falls, tied for third at 233.
 Also in the championship flight, University of South Dakota golfer Janice Baumberger finished at 239. Parkston's Jordan Bormann shot a 241.
 Mae Meierhenry of Sioux Falls won the first flight at 241. Parkston's Sydney Weber shot 247. USD's Jordan Reiarick and Kylie Gaughenbaugh shot 251 and 252.
 Alex Merry of Sioux Falls won the second flight at 256, edging out USD's Victoria Grasso by one stroke.
 Patty Coddington of Sioux Falls won the senior championship with a two-day score of 162. Patty Even of Hartford won the second flight (177), with Rosalie Groon of Sioux Falls winning the third flight (196).

Talcott Claims SDGA Men's Crown
SIoux FALLS — Jesse Talcott of Sioux Falls shot a third straight round under 70, shooting a 69 on Sunday, to score a three-stroke victory in the South Dakota Golf Association's Men's Amateur Championship, which concluded on Sunday at Bakker Crossing Golf Course in Sioux Falls.
 Talcott shot a three-day score of 199 on his home course, beating Mac Donohue of Sioux Falls.
 Former Freeman standout Arron Lickteig won the first flight title, shooting a final round 67 to finish at 212 and win by two strokes. Brad Jacobson of Watertown won the second flight at 217.
 Ben Rogers of Sioux Falls shot a 220 to win the third flight. Also in that flight, University of South Dakota golfer Kyle Scanlon shot 225. Jake Weber of Parkston finished at 227. Clint Farrar of USD shot 228.
 Russell Pick of Chamberlain won the fourth flight at 230. J.J. Cooney of Lake Andes bounced back from a rough first round to finish at 246.

 and scored on Johnson's two-out single.
 The Horned Frogs threatened in the ninth. Luke Bamberg drew a two-out walk, and Grewenew lifted a shot over the outstretched arms of Hegge in center for a triple. But Thygeson, who started the inning on the mound, got Menning to ground back to him, securing the save and advancing the Bluejays to the second round.

 The Bluejays were errorless on the day, in part because of a strong showing by utility infielder Mason Mueller. Mueller, who started at second and moved to third in the ninth, recorded six assists, including starting a double play, and ran down a pop-up in shallow center field.
 "Mason did great," Schief-fers said. "He makes the plays that come to him."
 Crofton now faces Lake Norden on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the second round. The matchup is a rematch of a 2013 first-round contest,
 "It's great for Yankton and it's great for everyone," Pollard said.
 For those players, though, they admitted to not really knowing what to expect once they got off the buses in Yankton.
 "I wasn't really sure what the turnout would be, but it was fun to see that people are excited about us this year," Earl said.
 And likewise, the players were excited to take their

Bures said of the American Legion pickup player. "How can you ask for more?"
 But Alexandria got out of the jam, with Vermeulen coming on to get the final out after Bruckner's two-out single.
 Even though the Bards did not advance, Tycz said that due to the experience from the contest will help them next season.
 "It will definitely be huge, especially for those Legion players," he said, referring to Soukup and Logan Mudder. "It will hurt losing Bures, but we'll get everyone else back."
