Farmers Union Day Set For State Fair

HURON — As a premiere sponsor of the South Dakota State Fair, S.D. Farmers Union invites fairgoers to help them celebrate Farmers Union Day at the State Fair Aug. 30.

"This is South Dakota's largest agriculture fair, we are excited to help celebrate South Dakota's number one industry," said Doug Sombke, President of South Dakota Farmers Union.

The day-long celebration is packed with awards, scholarships, Farm Safety FFA Quiz Bowl Championship and a Farmers Share Luncheon which is free and designed to share the truth about how much farmers receive for the groceries we see at local retailers.

"Whenever prices go up in the grocery store, you hear people talk about farmers and ranchers lining their pockets, when the truth is, of that $5 box of cold cereal, the corn farmer is only taking home about 4 cents," explained Karla Hofhenke, SD Farmers Union Executive Director. "The lunch we serve would cost about $8 at the grocery store but South Dakota farmers only receive about 40 cents."

During the day, five South Dakotans will be recognized for giving back to their rural communities with the Rural Dakota Pride Award. Hofhenke explains the integral connection between those who work in South Dakota's number one industry and their rural communities.

"One survives with the other," she said. "Without thriving communities, it's difficult to encourage young people to return to their family's farm or ranch. Rural communities are key to the future of South Dakota's agriculture industry; which is why we like to recognize those individuals who help them thrive."

This year's recipients include: Cindy Wilk, Huron; Jeff Kieser, Wessington Springs; Alan Vedvei, Lake Preston; Nick Nemec, Holabird; and John Wheeting, Grotton.

Youth will receive more than $25,000 in scholarships during the day from scholarship programs sponsored by S.D. Farmers Union Insurance and S.D. Farmers Union Foundation. The 2014 scholarship recipients include: Chesney Garnos, Presho; Danika Polreis, Ethan; Emily Massey, Olivet; Lisa Smith, Kimball; Carly Goodhart, Browns Valley, Minn.; Lan Blasius, Wall; Brittney Casey, Leola; Sarah Schoon, Salem; Kara Hanson, Mitchell; Graham Protexter, Pierre; Chesney Nagel, Springfield; Alexis Logue, Volin; Logan Strasburg, Volga; Miranda Ristau, Warner; Abigail Ceremuga, Rapid City; Emma Schmidt, Mitchell; Samantha Swenson, Madison; Sara Husher, Winner; Heather Barrie, Hitchcock; Shelby Van Driel, Lesterville; Hannah Covey, Winner; Sean Pinkert, Big Stone City; Alexander Snyder, Dell Rapids; and Anna Wolles, Dell Rapids.

Gubernatorial Debates Aug. 29

Leading up to Farmers Union day, on Aug. 29, Farmers Union will host Gubernatorial Debates beginning at 10 a.m. followed by Senatorial Debates at 12:30 p.m. All candidates have been invited. The event will be moderated by Carrie Law, former host on Today's Ag Show and Director of Communications and Government Relations for Sioux Valley Energy. Written questions will be accepted from the crowd.

"Farmers Union has a longstanding tradition of hosting candidate debates during the State Fair. What better location to discuss issues relevant to rural South Dakota and agriculture than the State Fair?" said Karla Hofhenke, Executive Director of S.D. Farmers Union.

The debates and all other Farmers Union events will take place on Freedom Stage or in the tent beside Freedom Stage on the South Dakota State Fairgrounds in Huron. To learn more, review the agenda below.
