Nikki's Fund 5K Run/Walk Slated Sept. 13 At Prentis Park

VERMILLION — The University of South Dakota, along with the communities of Vermillion and Yankton, will sponsor the ninth annual Nikki's Fund 5K Run/Walk at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 13, at Prentis Park in Vermillion. Part of National Suicide Prevention Week activities in September, Nikki's Fund 5K raises money for USD students in crisis situations and helps promote suicide prevention awareness throughout the region. "Nikki's Fund and the Nikki's Fund 5K are extremely important in assisting USD students who are in need during crisis situations," stated Teresa McDowell-Johnson, director of Student Rights and Responsibilities at USD. "All the support from this event goes a long way in supporting students who need our help." Registration forms are available now at the Student Counseling Center, which is located at the Cook House on the USD campus and participants can also register online at AllSport Central (www.all-sportcentral.com/) or complete a form the day of the run at 8 a.m. at Prentis Park. Registration cost is $15. All proceeds will benefit Nikki's Fund to support suicide prevention programs and other mental health needs for USD students. "The communities of Vermillion and Yankton have been wonderful partners and supporters of Nikki's Fund. Since its inception in 2006, we've raised more than $35,000 for USD students," said Janine Harris, founder of Nikki's Fund, which was created in memory of her daughter, Nicole Vallie Harris, who died from suicide on June 15, 2005. "Suicide is a preventable public health problem and prevention begins with each and every one of us. Our mission is educating others that suicide is not an option, that getting the help they need and deserve is." The 2014 race/walk starts at 9 a.m. at Prentis Park (also the finish line) with runners and walkers navigating a street course through downtown Vermillion. Prizes are awarded to first place finishers in the male and female categories of 15 and under, 16 to 25 years old, 26 to 54 years old, and 55 and over. T-shirts and refreshments will also be provided. For more information about Nikki's Fund or to make a donation, please call (605) 335-1688 or email www.nikkisfund84@gmail.com/.

Author Kathleen Norris To Speak At MMC

The Benedictine Institute for Leadership, Ethics and Social Justice announces award-winning poet, writer, and author Kathleen Norris as the featured speaker for the Fall Benedictine Lecture Series. Norris' lecture, "Benedict's Dakota: Themes of the Rule as Lived on the Plains," will be held at Mount Marty College at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 30, in Marian Auditorium in Yankton. Author of New York Times bestsellers, "The Cloister Walk," "Dakota: A Spiritual Geography," "Amazing Grace: A Vocabulary of Faith," and "The Virgin of Bennington," Norris' visit to Yankton will come on the heels of the Festival of Books event in Sioux Falls. Norris, a Benedictine Oblate since 1986 (Assumption Abbey in North Dakota), also spent two years at the Ecumenical (now Collegeville) at St. John's Abbey in Collegeville, Minnesota. Exploring the spiritual life, her work is at once intimate and historical, rich in poetry and meditations, brimming with exasperation and reverence, deeply grounded in both nature and spirit, sometimes funny and often provocative. Norris spends her time between South Dakota and Honolulu, Hawaii, where she volunteers at an Episcopal church, cooks for a homeless shelter, and helps teach a spirituality class for teenagers. She travels to the mainland regularly to speak to students, medical professionals, social workers and chaplains at colleges and universities, as well as churches and teaching hospitals. She is currently the poetry editor of Spirituality and Health and the nonfiction editor of the Saint Katherine Review. The Sept. 30 lecture, followed by a brief question-and-answer period and book signing, is open to the public free of charge. The doors to Marian Auditorium will open at 6:45 p.m.
