Lubberding Joins Coyote Golf VERMILLION — South Dakota head golf coach Nick Hovden announced Monday the addition of Noah Lubberding to the Covote men's golf team. "We are excited to add such a talented player and great all-around individual to our program," said Hovden. "Noah will be a solid fit with our team and his game will transition nicely to the collegiate level. Hailing from St. Albert, Alberta, Lubberding was selected to represent Team Alberta for the 2013 Junior America's Cup held in Maui, Hawaii. He also played for Team Alberta in the 2013 Alberta vs. Montana Ryder Cup. Lubberding also helped St. Albert Catholic High School win the Zone Championships and finish runner-up at the Provincial Championship as a sophomore. Standing at 6-foot-1. Lubberding also helped the SkyHawk men's volleyball team win the city championship as a sophomore. At South Dakota, Lubberding plans to major in accounting.

Lubberding joins two other freshmen, Andrew Brown and Will Gretton, on the Coyote men's golf team for the 2015-16 season. The trio are all natives of Alberta. Canada.

"With this strong class of freshman, this will be the deepest team we have had," said Hovden. "It will be fun to see how they all push each other this fall and who will step up to lead us on the course."

Coyote men's golfers open their season on Sept. 4 with a duel versus Nebraska-Omaha in Nebraska City, Neb.

Krolikowski Transfers To USF

SIOUX FALLS – Kray Krolikowski, a former all-state football player from Winner, has transferred from FCS South Dakota to join the University of Sjoux Falls Football Team. according to an announcement by USF head football coach Krolikowski played as a true freshman during the 2014 season at South Dakota, a member of the Missouri Valley Conference. The sonhomore will be immediately eligible to play for the Cougars, which returns 45 letter winners and 18 starters from an 11-1 team that finished #16/#18 in the national polls following the 2014 season.

Krolikowski, a criminal justice major, joins a defense that ranked 12th in the nation in scoring defense (17.4 ppg) and was third in the NSIC in total defense and pass defense as well as third in rushing defense. USF was first in the NSIC in pass defense efficiency at 90.5 and ranked fourth nationally.

In 2014, the former Winner prep played in 10 games, recording six tackles and three solo stops. He made his collegiate debut at Oregon, which was the FBS runner-up a year ago. Krolikowski was named to the MVFC Honor Roll

In high school, he was named first team all-state in 2013 after recording 45 tackles, eight TFLs and seven sacks on a 10-1 team. In 2012, he played a key role as Winner rolled to a 12-0 record and won the 11B title with a 13-6 win over Tri-Valley. As a junior, he had 48 tackles, including seven sacks. In his final two seasons of high school. Krolikowski helped lead Winner to a 22-1 record, state title and a 22-gamewinning streak, the 15th longest in S.D. high school football. In total, he had 93 tackles and 14 sacks in high school.

Krolikowski and the USF Football Team will open the season against U-Mary at noon on Saturday, Sept. 5 at Bob Young Field.

Fishing Events Remain On Nebraska Game And Parks' Schedule ents remain on the OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Several family fishing events remain on Nebraska Game and Parks Commission schedule for the summer. They are aimed at providing angling opportunities for people who have never fished or have not fished in years. Rods and reels, as well as bait and fishing instruction, will be available for free. Appropriate fishing and park permits are required.

The events are set for Tuesday at Independence Landing in Seward; Wednesday at Pond Park in Pawnee City; Thursday at Abbott Lake in Omaha and Mormon Island State Recreation Area Lake No. 1 in Grand Island. The others are set for Aug. 11 in Papillion, Halleck Park Lake; Aug. 12 in Lincoln, Holmes Lake; and Aug. 13 in York, Recharge Lake. Each runs from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

UFC's Ronda Rousey To Star In Biopic Based On Her Memoir

NEW YORK (AP) — Fresh off her knockout win, Ultimate Fighting Championship fighter Ronda Rousey is headed to the big screen. Paramount Pictures said Monday that it has acquired the rights to Rousey's autobiography, "My Fight/Your Fight," with plans for Rousey to play herself in the adaptation. The 28-year-old mixed martial artist has emerged as the sport's top female fighter. She's already drawn interest from Hollywood, appearing in the films "Furious 7" and "Entourage." In a bout Saturday in Rio de Janeiro, she won by knockout 34 seconds into the first round.

The film will begin development with Mark Bomback penning the script. His credits include co-writing the screenplays to "Dawn of the Planet of the Apes" and "The Wolverine."

Variety first reported plans for the film.

schools like USD would be searching for a guarantee game and two other nonconference games before the league slate. Would two FBS games ever be a possibility? No, Herbster said.

"That's burying your program, if you want any shot to make the playoffs," he said.

It would also be highly unlikely that a school like USD, for example, wouldn't have an FBS game one year – North Dakota State has that exact scenario this season.
