YANKTON COUNTY 4-H JUNIOR LEADERS

The Yankton County Junior Leaders met on July 19, 2015, at 2:30 p.m. in the Yankton

County Extension Office. There was an attendance of 12 members.

Our first agenda was electing a new president. After a quick vote Parker Bailey became the new president.

Our old business started out with our fundraising from 2015. At our Pizza Ranch fundraiser we made $102.73 in tips and $178.18 in sales making a total of $280.91.

For new business we talked about upcoming Achievement Day activities. We discussed the Youth Fair which was going to be held on Saturday, Aug. 1, from 1:30-2:30 p.m.

After the youth fair the celebrity round robin was discussed. The celebrity round was to be held at 6 p.m. on Aug. 1 during Achievement Days.

Our next meeting will be held Oct. 25 at 1 p.m. at the Yankton County Extension Office.

Riverboat Days float. We then figured out a design to bring out 4-H and the theme "Red, White, and Blue-We Salute You."

Our next agenda of meeting was our August community service project. We discussed and voted to help out the Master Gardeners in Yankton.

Lastly, we discussed our September Social activity. A few ideas that were presented included: laser barn, bowling, rock wall climbing, skyzone, and roller skating.

Our next meeting will be held Oct. 25 at 1 p.m. at the Yankton County Extension Office.
