RECORD

Rosario's triple was his ninth of the season, tying a Twins' rookie record set by Tony Oliva in 1964. The nine triples are the most by a rookie since Alcides Escobar and Austin Jackson both hit 10 in 2010.

"He's aggressive out of the box," Molitor said. "He thinks triple."

"If you would've told me two months ago that this is where he'd be, I'd say we're thrilled," Francona said. "He has the ability to be more. That's why it's exciting and that's why we continue to stay on him.

INDIANS: Manager Terry Francona said INF Jason Kipnis will not go on a rehab assignment and could be activated from the DL on Monday from right shoulder inflammation. ... All Star OF Michael Brantley (left shoulder) continues to take batting practice and could be available to DH on Monday. UP NEXT

TWINS: Minnesota sends Kyle Gibson (8-9, 3.75) to the mound to begin a 10-game road trip in New York on Monday night. The Yankees will counter with C.C. Sabathia (4-9, 5.23), who hasn't pitched more than six innings in a game since June 29.

INDIANS: Danny Salazar (10-6, 3.26) is 3-2 with a 1.48 ERA in his last six outings and will start Monday for Cleveland as it continues its 11-game road trip in Boston. Matt Barnes (3-2, 5.64) is scheduled to start for the Red Sox.

Iowa Turns To Daniels At Running Back

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) -Iowa will finally have a running back starting at running back this fall. After three years leaning on converted fullback Mark Weisman, the Hawkeyes intend to make junior LeShun Daniels Jr. their starter. Iowa, which has typically tried to build its offensive philosophy around a strong running game, is hopeful that Daniels can be its first player to rush for over 1,000 yards since Marcus Coker in 2011. The Hawkeyes open their season Sept. 5 against Illinois State. "He's obviously a bigger back, and he's really an intelligent, smart guy. He knows who he needs to block, and he knows where he needs to be. You can always count on him, and he's been running the ball really well," quarterback C.J. Beathard said about Daniels. At 6 foot and about 225 pounds, Daniels is built like the kind of traditional big back that lowa was once known for.

If Daniels can stay healthy, he'll likely get as many carries as he can handle.

Daniels struggled through injuries as a freshman, rushing for just 142 yards. He looked ready to emerge last season until a foot injury sidelined him for the second half of the year. Daniels made his push to be the starter with a strong spring camp though, and he's also dropped 10 pounds in an effort to gain some quickness and flexibility.

For now, senior Jordan Canzeri appears set for be Iowa's third down and change of pace back — though a big-ger role could be possible with a strong finish to fall camp.

Canzeri has also battled through a series of health issues during his career, and at 5-foot-9 and 190 pounds it's unclear whether he'd be able to withstand the pounding he'd have to take week in and week out

But Canzeri has had his moments with the Hawkeves. most notably when he rushed for 120 vards on just 12 carries in a bowl loss to Tennessee in January.

MITCHELL - Brian McGuire's RBI single in the bottom of the tenth gave Renner a 1-0 victory over the Sioux Falls Brewers in the championship game of the South Dakota State Class A Amateur Baseball Tournament on Sunday at Mitchell's Cadwell Park.

It marked the third straight Class A title for the Monarchs. Renner has won nine titles in the past 12 seasons

Eric Dejong had three hits, and Juan Thomas and Matt Guiliano each had two hits for Renner, which outhit the Brewers 12-5.

Charlie Dubanoski had two of Sioux Falls' four hits. T.J. Miller's double was the only extra-base hit for either team Miller finished with three hits, and Nick Bruning had two hits, including a home run, to lead the Brewers. Charlie Dubanoski and James Borges had two hits each. Scott Splett homered in the victory.

For Castlewood, Kolton Michalski had three hits, including a home run, to lead the way. Eric Danforth had three hits, including a triple. Andy Turbak had two hits and two RBI in the effort.

Bruning pitched a scoreless tenth for the victory. Blake Fiedelman started, striking out 12 in eight innings of work. Danforth went NASCAR all season before dominating this 400-mile race in his No. 20 Toyota. It was his 34th career victory, and Joe Gibbs Racing has won five of the last six Cup races - two by Kenseth and three by Kyle Busch.

'You really need to enjoy it, because about 10 races back, we were struggling, trying to get there," Gibbs said. You just hope now that we'll be able to hold some momentum here and head into the Chase, but it's very hard to do. In pro sports, it can come and go in a week.

JĞR came into the race with the top three qualifiers in Kenseth, Denny Hamlin and Carl Edwards. Hamlin finished fifth and Edwards was sixth. Martin Truex Jr. finished behind Harvick in third. Austin Dillon, who was sent to the back at the beginning of the race because of an engine change, managed a fourth-place showing, and Kyle Busch took another step toward wrapping up a spot in the Chase with an 11th-place

"It was a success," Busch said. "It wasn't what we wanted. We had a really, really fast car yesterday, but I screwed up and wrecked that car. It was a winning car, maybe not the winning car. But congratulations to our teammate Matt Kenseth and the '20' bunch. It's really good times for Joe Gibbs Racing right now.'

Harvick remained atop the standings and now leads Joey Logano by 48 points. Logano finished seventh.

The rules package caused some concerns over the heat, and NASCAR mandated a dual outlet duct be used on the right-side window to help with ventilation and keep the cockpit from being too hot for the drivers. NBC Sports showed a reading of over 150 degrees in the cockpit of Casey Mears' car - and that was still during the first quarter of the race.

You knew it was going to be a little bit hotter. We prepared for that," Kenseth said. "Started hydrating a couple days ago and drinking a lot of Gatorade and tried to eat right and get some sleep. ... It really wasn't bad. Yeah, it was hot, but I've been a lot hotter.'
