She also worked at Gurney's and the Yankton Care Center. Iva was a member of Vangen Lutheran Church in Mission Hill where she served as a Sunday school teacher and on the church council. Iva took special care in maintaining her home at Valley View, diligently painting, mowing, and gardening the flowers she loved so much. She was also known for her hospitality and opening her home to all her friends and neighbors. Every Sunday afternoon, Iva would sit down and hand-write cards to her family, showing her caring through frequent correspondence.

Heine

Steffen, Dan Steiner, Tom Stevens, and Matt Weindant. Honorary pallbearers are his many nieces and nephews. Steve was born on April 25, 1960 at Yankton, SD to Gerhardt and Florence (Becker) Heine. He graduated from Cedar Catholic High School in 1978. He married Janet Marie Reimann on July 16, 1994 in St. Helena. Steve proudly lived on the homestead all of his life and loved showing it to people any chance he could. He has been in business with his family all his life with farming, cattle, trucking and ownership of Yankton's north sale barn. Steve loved the business and all the people it involved. He was very proud of where he came from and what he did. He never missed an opportunity of telling others about their 100+ year old operation and he loved showing people the feed yard. Steve loved nothing more than working his business and negotiating deals. Currently he and his brother, Ron, own Heine Farms Feed Yard and Heine Express along with ownership of Heine Farms with his four brothers.

Steve was a member of the Holy Family (Immaculate Conception) Catholic Church in St. Helena and was a former parish council member. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus in Yankton and was a former member of the Cedar Catholic Booster Club and East Catholic School Board. Steve had many interests, but he particularly loved sports and cards. Steve loved all sports, but he especially found great joy in watching his son Garrett and the Cedar Catholic class of 2015 play through the years. Steve really loved baseball and took time to play on various area teams well into his thirties.

He never missed an opportunity to watch a Twins, Vikings or Huskers game and he supported them through good and the bad. Steve loved to play cards and never turned down a game whether it was friends, family or his beloved poker friends. You would never be able to find a more generous and hospitable man than Steve. You always had a good time with him and you could always count on knowing that your drink would never run dry or your plate never go empty.

Most of all Steve loved his family, his wife and children were the pride and joy of his life. Steve gave them a great life and for that they will always be grateful, they will always do their best to honor his legacy. Not only was he their husband and father, but he was truly their best friend. Steve was never an equestrian fan, but he made sure that he owned numerous horses from the day they were married; however he was never quite sure just how many or which horses he really owned. He was very proud of what his daughters accomplished in and out of the arena and made sure they had what they needed to fulfill their dreams. If his family was happy then Steve was happy. It was always evident that he loved each and every member of his extended family with the biggest heart. From his beloved Mother to the youngest of great nieces and nephews, he always took time to visit and see how they are doing, but more importantly he took the time to play with them.

Steve is survived by his wife, Janet Heine of Fordyce; 3 children, Garrett Heine who is attending UNL, Ashley and Lauren Heine, both at home, his mother, Florence Heine of Yankton; 7 siblings, Gary and Arlene Heine of Yankton; Dion Karras of Yankton; Gene and Aggie Heine of Yankton; Ron Heine of Yankton; Tom and Pat Heine of Yankton; Cindy and Robert Smith of Mission Hill; Annette and Don Talsma of Fredricksburg, VA; parents-in-law, Donald and Norma Reimann of Miller, SD; a brother-in-law Kent and Nora Reimann of Miller, SD; a sister-in-law, Karen and Mike Opp of Aberdeen, SD and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father Gerhardt Heine, a brother Richard Heine, a sister Mary Heine, a very special aunt Leone Becker, a brother-in-law, Christos Karras, and a nephew, Nicholas Reimann.
