Cubs' Arrieta No-Hits Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jake Arrieta pitched the sixth no-hitter in the majors this season and second against the Los Angeles Dodgers in 10 days, leading the Chicago Cubs to a 2-0 victory Sunday night.

Arrieta (17-6) became the first 17-game winner in the big leagues by throwing baseball's third no-hitter in less than three weeks.

Astros right-hander Mike Fiers blanked the NL West-leading Dodgers 3-0 on Aug. 21. Los Angeles had never been no-hit twice in a season. Arrieta struck out a season-high 12 — one off his career high — and walked one to help the Cubs snap a four-game skid on the last night of their six-game West Coast trip. He finished August with a 6-0 record, tying Boston's Joe Kelly as the only pitchers with that many wins in the month.

a triple, a walk and a run scored, and Camryn Zoeller had a two-run double and a run scored to lead Yankton. Izzy Wintz had a two-run single and a run scored. Lainie Keller had a hit and a run scored. Addie Binder had a walk and a run scored in the effort.
 Annika Gordon took the loss, striking out two.

S.F. NAMROGO 10, YANKTON 5: SIoux FALLS — Emma Sedlacek had their first lead of the night, 28-21. Brookings answered with a 10-yard pass from Coughlin to McKibben, tying the game.

In the second overtime, Coughlin scored on a 1-yard keeper to give Brookings a 35-28 edge. Yankton answered, as Reid Sawatzke found Michael Heine on fourth-and-11 for the tying score.
 "Every play, you've got to go out and make the best play you possibly can," Sawatzke said of the pressure of overtime. "Everyone was doing what they could to get the win."
 That included keeping the adrenaline flowing.
 "I was just screaming, trying to get the adrenaline flowing," Withrow said. "When I would get to the line, then I would focus on who I needed to hit."

Brookings blocked Yankton's field goal attempt in the third overtime, but a fumble on the 2-yard line stopped the potential winning drive. In the fourth overtime, Yankton picked off a pass at the goal line but could not convert.
 "The more we played, the better our defense got," Likness said.

In the fifth overtime, Sawatzke scored on fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line, and Rokusek picked off Coughlin's first attempt on Brookings' possession to ice the victory.

"We knew everyone was getting tired," Terca said. "We didn't want to make the offense get back on the field. We knew our defense had to step up, and Nick came out of nowhere to make the play."
 Yankton hosts Mitchell on Sept. 4. While the opening win was exciting, it did also show the Bucks that they were not in post-season form yet.

"A lot of stuff happened in the game," Withrow said
