Dear Santa,

I'm writing for Zoey because she's too little to write. So I'm gonna make this easy, she only needs a 9 or 10 things from you, because she's gonna get about a thousand more things from her parents my family and every body else. So here we go.

1. Chew toys
  2. Couple of Onesies
  3. Diapers
  4. Baby food
  5. Bottles
  6. Wipes
  7. Bibs
  8. Pacifiers
  9. Baby toys
  - Last but not least.
  10. Formula

Dear Santa,

I'm writing this list for my sister. She is only three years old. She wants a bike, a Pet Shop book, some Pet Shop games, some coloring book and this is the last thing that she want and it is a teddy bear.

Sincerely,
Alyssa Iiams
Lincoln School, 4th grade

Dear Santa,

All I want for Christmas! I am writing for my nephew, Evan Heremy Fox, because he can't write yet. He has been good all year. At least I think he has been. He will leave your milk and cookies on Christmas Eve. He would probably like a toy truck with a remote control, a teddy because to sleep with at night and at naps, a play plastic toy to bite, and a big soft blanket to cover him up on cold nights. Thank you for reading Evan's list.

Sincerely,
Linze Cowman
Lincoln School, 4th grade

Dear Santa,

I'm writing for my little sister, Jady. She is only four. I know what she wants a new horse barn! For all of her horses. I know what else she wants, it is a hamster like mine, but I'm getting it for my birthday! I want my little sister to get almost whatever she wants. She also wants a real horse like ever! Can you, Santa give a present for my sister from me? A big stuffed animal horse for her please.

Thank you,
Traia Hubbard
Lincoln School, 4th grade

Dear Santa,

All I want for Christmas is a bike for my nephew Taylor, a snow board for me, a teddy bear for my niece Remy, and a coffee maker for my dad. So that's all I want for Christmas. I hope you can bring it all.
