SCHOLASTICS

Wieseler Inducted Into Golden Key Honor Society

University of South Dakota-Carissa Wieseler of Yankton has accepted membership in Golden Key International Honour Society and was honored during a recent induction ceremony at University of South Dakota.

"It is only fitting that a top academic achiever like Carissa be recognized by Golden Key," said William W. Asbury, Golden Key's Board of Directors Chair. "Our members are inspired and motivated not only to achieve exceptional academic accomplishments, but also to make a positive impact on our world through the Society's commitment to service."

Golden Key International Honour Society provides academic recognition to top-performing college and university students, as well as scholarships and awards, career and internship opportunities, networking, service and leadership development opportunities.

Carissa is the daughter of Nancy Himes and John Himes and John Wieseler and the granddaughter of Francis and LaVonne Mueller and Gerald Wieseler.

About Golden Key Golden Key International Honour Society, established in 1977, is the world's premier collegiate honor society, with nearly 2 million student and alumni members. The Society has more than 375 campus-based chapters in eight countries, including Australia, Canada, India, Malaysia, New Zealand, South Africa, The Bahamas and the United States. Membership into the Society is by invitation only. For more information on Golden Key, please visit www.goldenkey.org.

MILITARY

AIRMAN DALTON SCHMITZ

Air Force Airman Dalton J. Schmitz graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

The airman completed an intensive, eight-week program that included training in military discipline and studies, Air Force core values, physical fitness and basic warfare principles and skills.

Airmen who complete basic training earn four credits toward an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Schmitz is the son of Jay Schmitz of Bonesteel. He is a 2011 graduate of South Central High School, Bonesteel.

Schaefer Inducted Into Business Honor Society

CHADRON, Neb. — Kayla Schaefer of Bloomfield, Neb., is among the 41 new members Chadron State College's Kappa Kappa Kappa chapter of the Delta Mu Delta Honor Society.

Schaefer, a senior at CSC, was among the new members who were given special recognition during a ceremony conducted by business faculty and members of the chapter Tuesday, Nov. 29.

Schaefer is a 2004 graduate of Bloomfield High School. Her husband is Anthony Schaefer. She is the daughter of Leon Schroeder of Bloomfield. The newly elected members to the chapter receive lifetime recognition for outstanding academic achievement in business administration. The inductees consist of juniors and seniors, in addition to graduates seeking a Master of Business Administration degree.

Delta Mu Delta is an international honor society in business administration for business programs accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs at the bachelor's and master's degree level. New members are offered lifetime recognition of outstanding academic achievements, eligibility to compete in the annual scholarship awards program, acknowledgement for federal employment, networking opportunities and lifetime contact through the annual Delta Mu Delta Vision newsletter.

Delta Mu Delta members will wear cords at graduation signifying their academic achievements.

Three of the new inductees were elected to serve as officers for the chapter. They are Donald Hlava of Gordon, president, Shae Erickson of Alliance, vice president and Bryce Harrington of Grand Island, secretary.

Applications Being Accepted For YPC Relations Board

Interested residents from the Yankton area are sought for the Community Relations Board of the Yankton Federal Prison Camp.

The CRB consists of 10 elected members, three members mandated through bylaws and several appointees. All are unpaid volunteer positions.

The board meets at 5 p.m. on the third Wednesday of each month in the warden's office in Ward Hall on the FPC campus. The designated purposes of the board are to represent the community by becoming informed about policies, programs and conditions at the camp, as well as to encourage community interest and involvement and to make recommendations regarding the camp.

The present opening is a recently vacated elected position, the term for which will expire in June 2013.

Those interested in applying must submit a letter of interest and be willing to submit to a background check. Letters must be sent by Dec. 16, 2011, to Board President Joan Neubauer, 2835 Mary St., Yankton SD 57078. The position will be awarded by the week of Jan. 22, 2012.
