75 YEARS AGO

Sunday, December 20, 1936

No paper.

50 YEARS AGO

Wednesday, December 20, 1961

- The volume of December mail here through Monday, December 18, was well over that from December 1 through Monday, December 19, 1960, except possibly for incoming parcel post.
- A program entitled "How Jeffry Discovered Christmas" was presented by the Methodist Sunday school in Wagner, in the church Sunday evening and will be presented again Friday evening, December 22 at 8 o'clock. The church was filled to capacity.

25 YEARS AGO

Saturday, December 20, 1986

- Ten of the 14 floodgates at the Gavins Point Dam have been releasing water downstream, creating a mist that freezes on the dam to form picturesque ice formations. According to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, this is the first time since the dam began operation in 1956 that water has been released through the floodgates in December.
- Huron hit 13 of 15 free throws in the final three minutes to defeat the Yankton Bucks, 51-40, in an ESD Conference clash Friday night at the YHS gym.

DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT

Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal. Animals can be viewed on the Humane Society Web site at www.heartlandhumanesociety.net.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press and Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.

It is the policy of the Press and Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.
