Player Of The Week Honor

ELMHURST, III. — South Dakota senior Amber Hegge has been named the Summit League Player of the Week in women's basketball, the league announced on Tuesday. The award is the second of the year for Hegge and is the fifth time that she has earned a weekly conference player of the week honor during her career.

Hegge (Crofton, Neb.) had an impressive all-around performance in the Coyotes' 63-54 win at Utah Valley on Monday in Orem, Utah. She finished with 19 points on 6-of-7 shooting and recorded her third double-double of the season by adding 11 rebounds. She also had seven assists, four blocks and four steals in 31 minutes. Hegge now has scored in double figures in 18 straight games and now has 17 career double-doubles.

Hegge just moved into sixth-place on South Dakota's all-time scor-ing list. She is at 1,334 career points, and will set her sights on fifth, which is held by Shelby Petersen with 1,485 points. South Dakota (7-2) resumes action today (Wednesday) at Idaho State. Tipoff is at 8 p.m. Central time in Pocatello, Idaho.

Under the terms of the agreement, WNAX 570 AM will continue to serve as the flagship station for the Jackrabbit Sports Network, which currently consists of six other affiliates across the state. Programming will consist of all regular season and postseason games for football men's basketball and women's basketball as well as daily ".lackrabbi Update" segments and a minimum of 30 weekly coaches' shows for football and basketball.

The partnership between SDSU Athletics and WNAX Radio dates back to the mid-1960s. Featuring one of the strongest signals in the Upper Midwest, WNAX has been the radio home of Jackrabbit football and men's basketball continuously since 1991, and added women's basketball to its lineup in recent years.
