Yankton Native Iverson Leads Unbeaten Colorado State

Yankton native Colton Iverson is playing a key role in Colorado State men's basketball team's un beaten 6-0 start to the season. Saturday's win over Evansville matches the school record for best start. Iverson, a 6-foot-10 senior center, leads the Rams in scoring (16.5) and rebounding (11.2), and has recorded a double-double in each of the last four games. Iverson is tied for eighth nationally in double-doubles (4), ranks 11th in rebounds per game (11.2) and 11th in field goal percentage (63.8). Colorado State plays Colorado on Wednesday night in Boulder, Colo.

Scotland's Brunke Makes Marathon 'B' Standard

FREMONT, Neb. — Dakota Wesleyan's Haley Brunke quali-fied for the 2013 NAIA Outdoor Track and Field National Championships by meeting the "B" provisional standard at the Midland Half Marathon Saturday in Fremont, Neb.

Brunke, a freshman from Scotland, took fourth at the half marathon in 1:31.50. She finished one second behind the thirdplace runner. Brunke was DWU's top runner in the GPAC Cross Country Championships last month.

The 2013 outdoor national championships are hosted by Indiana Wesleyan University May 24-26 in Marion, Ind.

Moceri Sets Two School Records At Rochester Invitational

ROCHESTER, Minn.— Shannon Moceri set two new school records and the men's and women's teams combined for 16 topthree finishes over the course of the two-day Rochester Invita-tional in Rochester, Minn. The South Dakota women scored 1,367.5 points to finish second at the 11-team meet. The men scored 563 points to finish third among the eight men's teams competing at the event.

Moceri broke her own school record in the 100-vard breast stroke by nearly 1.5 seconds, finishing the 100 breastbroke in one minute, 2.64 seconds to win the event. Her time was .15 sec-onds off of qualifying standard B for the NCAA Championship meet. Moceri's 100 breaststroke time of 2:20.18 earned her a sec-ond-place finish and set a new school-record in the process.

Moceri wasn't the only Coyote to have a career day. Fellow senior Kaitlyn Jefferson took first in the 50 (23.95) and 100 freestyle (52.24) and set personal-bests in the process. Her time in the 100 was more than one second faster than her previous best

Paige Stavely finished second in the 200 backstroke, swimming 2:05.57 and lowering her previous career-best by more than two seconds. Stavely also placed second in the 400 individual medley. Her time of 4:34.95 was nearly five seconds faster than her previous best, while her teammate Linay McCrady took third in 4.42 70

For the men Ian Ford added three top-three finishes and set new personal-bests in all three events. Ford took second in the 100 backstroke (51.90) and 200 backstroke (1:52.33) and finished third in the 200 IM (1:55.90). His 200 IM time was nearly five seconds faster than his previous best of 2:00.48.

Colin Krysl set career-bests in the 100 and 200 butterfly, tak-first-place in the 100 in 50.14 and second in the 200 butterfly ing first-1:54.24.

All four women's relay teams placed in the top three. The 400 medley relay team of Mariah Anderson, Moceri, Hannah Veselik and Jefferson clocked 3:54.86 for second-place, a 200 medley relay team of Emily Smallbeck, Moceri, Veselik and Jefferson swam 1:46.46 to finish in second. Jefferson and Torie Buberl swam Jefferson, Chelsea Coneset, Anderson and Torie Buberl swam the 200 free relay in 1:37 54 to take third and Jefferson. Schenk Anderson and Buberl teamed up to finish third in the 400 free relay (3:34.35)

Ford, Jake Tempesta, Krysl, and Blake Frederick finished third in the 200 medley relay, timing in at 1:41.86. St. Cloud State acted as the host school for the two-day competition, Minnesota State, Northern State, Wis,-Lacrosse, Wis,-

Clark Earns Summit League Honors

ELMHURST, III. — Western Illinois guard Ceola Clark III was named Summit League Men's Basketball Player of the Week for his performance Nov. 26-Dec. 2.

Clark III earned his third career award and first of the season after leading Western Illinois to a pair of road wins to open Sum-mit League play 2-0. In the league opener at South Dakota, Clark III scored the game-winner as time expired as part of a 20-point performance. He also added four assists, three rebounds and two steals while shooting 61.5 percent (8-of-13) from the field and 50 percent (4-of-8) from three-point range. Two days later at Kansas City, Clark III scored a career-high 27 points in WIU's victory. In that contest, he also shot 61.5 percent (8-of-13) and improved to 62.5 percent (5-of-8) while dishing out four assists without committing a turnover. For the week, Clark III averaged 23.5 points, 4.0 assists, 2.5

rebounds and 1.5 steals with just one turnover during that span. He shot 61.5 percent from the field (16-of-26), connected on 56.3 of his three-point attempts (9-of-16) and converted all six free throws

Poll: Manziel Favorite In Heisman

HOUSTON — Texas A&M freshman quarterback Johnny Manziel will make Heisman history, if a Houston Chronicle survey is any indication. But it might be a close vote. In a national survey of 69 Heisman voters — from 21 states — Manziel received 38 first-place votes. Notre Dame senior linebacker Manti Te'o received 30 first-place votes, and Southern California receiver Margise Lee received one first-place vote. Manziel would become the first freshman to win the Heisman Trophy. Te'o would be the first true defensive player to be selected for the honor.

The overall Heisman electorate includes 870 media members 57 former Heisman winners and one overall online fan vote. The Chronicle survey of 69 voters represents 7 percent of the 928 overall voters.

In the regional breakdown, Manziel dominated the southwest east (7-1) and the rest of the nation was very competitive. The work of the state o here) and Midwest (6-5), and Manziel won the South (4-2). Manziel, Te'o and Kansas State quarterback Collin Klein were announced as the finalists for the award, which will be presented Saturday at 7 p.m. Central.

Paul Petrino Hired As Idaho Coach

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — Arkansas assistant Paul Petrino was hired Monday as the new head football coach at Idaho.

Petrino has produced some of the most prolific offenses in the nation as an assistant coach at several other schools. Idaho officials said 'He is one of the top offensive minds in college football," school President Duane Nellis said. Petrino replaces interim coach Jason Gesser, who guided the Vandals during the final four games after Robb Akey was fired. Terms of his contract were not disclosed

Petrino said he would bring his high-powered offensive schemes to Idaho, and restore the program to the success it enjoyed two decades ago when he was an assistant here.

Ponder

From Page 7 Michael Harrington to Portland for allocation

> Ponder entered the fourth quarter Sunday with just five completions in the game, all on one drive. He finished 12 of 25 for 119 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. In this pass-happy era of the NFL, Ponder has actually thrown for 76 fewer yards than Peterson has rushed for over the last six games.

For a team holding faint hopes for a playoff berth, the imbalance to the offense has been the biggest reason for its recent downfall.

The unwillingness to go to Webb, even temporarily, would seem an indictment on the depth at the position. The Vikings cut veteran Sage Rosenfels in favor of Webb and developmental quarterback McLeod Bethel-Thompson, giving them three young and largely unproven players at the game's most important position.

Frazier said Monday the team is confident Webb would do well if called upon. But he doesn't see the need right now.

"We believe that Christian is going to continue to develop and grow and be the quarterback that we all expect him to be," Frazier said. "That being said, there's a lot riding on this next ballgame for our football team, and I'm sure there are a lot of guys looking and wondering if we can get it done under the current situation. I believe we can. I believe we'll play better, not only at the quarterback position but at other positions as well. We'll need to as
