Attorney General Provides Holiday Shopping Tips

PIERRE — South Dakota Attorney General Marty Jackley is encouraging consumers to shop with care this holiday season. Jackley warns that during the busiest season of the year it is especially important to be watchful and avoid those common shopping mistakes.

TIPS ON HOLIDAY SHOPPING

- Check the refund and return policies for restrictions and exceptions
- When buying gift cards, check for fees and expiration dates that apply
- Read the fine print
- Double check delivery dates
- Review warranties
- Compare prices
- Check shipping and handling fees if shopping by mail or on the internet

Along with those traditional shopping methods consumers also need to proceed with caution when dealing with online retailers.

ONLINE SHOPPING TIPS

- Consumers using the internet to find the perfect gift should avoid using email links. These links can appear to be from a known business, when in fact they are coming from a different company altogether.
- Use credit cards for online purchases. If there is a problem with the purchase it is much easier to dispute the charges.
- Be leery of businesses who are offering deep discounts. If it sounds too good to be true, then it likely is, so shop with reputable sellers.
- If you have any additional questions, contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Office at 1-800-300-1986 or consumerhelp@state.sd.us.
