Knox Co. Reports ATV Theft, Sign Damage

From P&D Staff Reports

CENTER, Neb. — Knox County Sheriff Don Henery has released his weekly report, including the reported theft of an all-terrain vehicle (ATV) and intentional damage to a stop sign.

• On December 4, a report was received from Roger and Becky Koehn, Niobrara, Neb., that sometime between Nov. 22-28, someone stole their dark green 2005 Yamaha 660 Grizzly from a pasture south of Niobrara.

There is a basket and gun rack mounted on the front of the ATV, and it has a torn-up seat.

• On Dec. 10, the Knox County Department of Roads reported a stop sign was intentionally run over at the intersection of 548th Ave. and 876th

Tire tracks in the snow went to the stop sign. The same tire tracks also entered a field next to the stop sign where the driver turned around. Black paint was recovered from the stop sign post, and pictures were taken of the tire tracks.

• The Knox County Jail report includes a Dec. 6 booking of Skyler R. Culp, 18, of Yankton, for one count of theft on a Yankton County warrant and for a second count of theft.

CRA To Host Workshop In Hartington Dec. 13

LYONS, Neb. — The Center for Rural Affairs is hosting a free workshop in Hartington, Neb., on how community involvement to support beginning farmers and ranchers is imperative to the prosperity of the area. This workshop is set for Thursday, Dec. 13, at the Hartington Public Library. It runs from 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Value-added agriculture, intergenerational family farming, financing, land access, farm business management, beginning farmer programs, estate planning and strategies for farm succession will be part of the discus-

"Farmers and ranchers under the age of 35 are becoming scarce in Nebraska," said Virginia Meyer with the Center for Rural Affairs.

An informal discussion format will allow landowners and community members to talk about their individual farm succession goals including generation transfer, land stewardship, and economic issues.

"All interested community members are welcome to these discussions owners, operators, inheritors of farmland and community members who are interested in seeing beginning farmers and ranchers succeed, concluded Meyer.

To participate, RSVP by calling Virginia Meyer at (402) 687-2103 ext. 1014 or virginiam@cfra.org.

75 YEARS AGO

Saturday, December 11, 1937 · Pipes were being laid today to provide water for a public skating rink on the Yankton college athletic field park.

 Displaying some streaks of a strong offense which they combined with another effective defense, Yankton high school Bucks marched to a 24 to 12 victory over Wakonda here last night and thus gained revenge for a humiliating defeat suffered at the hands of the "Green Wave" last year. The triumph made it two straight wins in as many games for Yankton so far this season.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.

It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.
