New Fire Chief Selected for Vermillion

From P&D Staff Reports

VERMILLION — Richard Shannon Draper has been hired as the new fire chief for Vermillion, it was announced Thursday.

In a press release, the City of Vermillion said Draper will begin his duties later this month. He replaces Doug Brunick, who retired after more than 30 years of service.

Draper comes to Vermillion from his most recent experience with a career fire department in Missouri. He has more than 25 years of experience in the fire profession, serving in widespread departments from volunteer to military to public, and in a host of places from Pennsylvania to Kosovo to Hungary. Most recently, he was in South Korea invited to speak about advanced leadership skills for fire service chief officers.

SAC Pool Closed Saturday For Swim Meet

The Summit Activities Center pool will be unavailable to members and guests on Saturday Dec. 15, due to the Yankton Swim Team Meet. The weight and fitness area, track and gymnasium will still be open for members and guests as normal.

For further information, call 668-5234 or stop by the Summit Activities Center at 1801 Summit Street. Remember to follow the Yankton Parks and Recreation on Facebook.

Award-Winning Author To Speak In Yankton

The community is invited to attend a presentation by award-winning author and former guidance counselor, Julia Cook, set for 6:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 17, in the Beadle School Gym.

Cook will present an entertaining discussion on the use of storybooks to offer children and adults a fun way to learn important people skills. She will demonstrate humorous and effective ways to use books on such subjects as tattling, bullying, personal space, interrupting, divorce, anger and personal safety.

More information about Julia Cook, her books and program can be found at <http://www.juliacookonline.com/>.

Residents Sought For Bridge Plaza Committee

The Yankton City Commission is seeking Yankton residents to serve on a Meridian Bridge Plaza Committee. Interested citizens will work with members of the City Commission to identify obstacles and solutions related to the Meridian Bridge Plaza.

Anyone who is interested in serving on this committee should submit a letter of interest to the City Manager's Office. Letters should be sent to: City Manager's Office, P.O. Box 176, Yankton, SD 57078

The deadline for these inquiries is Monday, Dec. 17.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO

Tuesday, December 14, 1937

• Entries of Christmas cards, posters and other art work, the product of youngsters in some of the rural schools of this section, are already coming in for showing in the rural school Christmas exhibit to be held next Saturday afternoon in the city hall auditorium.

• An extra ordinary session of the Wakonda town board took place Wednesday when the members held their meeting in Sioux City at the bedside of Mark Krueger, board chairman, who has been confined to his bed for six weeks as the result of a fall from a step ladder in the Corner Drug store fracturing a thigh.

50 YEARS AGO

Friday, December 14, 1962

• Members of the conservation and water resources committee of the Yankton Chamber of Commerce were told Thursday afternoon that nine or more signers, with 2,300 acres of land, are needed to complete the petitions to form a Mame creek watershed district.

• It takes talent and ambition to be a titleholder. But it takes poise, personality and sincerity to be a real champion! And that's the makeup of the 1962 South Dakota Independent Athlete of the Year. Sports fans through the state will certainly applaud the selection of Mrs. Robert (Indy) Titterington, Yankton, 1962 Womens Amateur golf champion.

25 YEARS AGO

Monday, December 14, 1987

• Leaders of two citizens groups for and against a minimum-security prison at the Yankton College campus debated the issue this morning at an Optimists Club forum.

• Amid the fingers describing Yankton's status in Class AA girls basketball, head coach Bob Winter gets the familiar victory ride on his players' shoulders after the YHS coach picked up the state championship trophy.
