MEAD UPDATE

PHOTO: DAKOTA TERRITORIAL MUSEUM

Nancy Losacker has finished documenting the artwork inside the Mead Building. She found unique stencil and pounce pattern work. The pounce pattern work, specifically is a true work of art and a valuable find to the Yankton community. Progress keeps moving forward on the placement of the clay tiles on the roof. Stonebrook is still looking to be done by Christmas. The purchase of a window for restoration is the perfect gift that can last a lifetime. For just $25 a month for one year you could purchase a $300 window. Windows are going fast, so reserve your chance to be a part of this significant project. If you are interested becoming a part of the Mead Building project, giving opportunities are available in a variety of donation levels. For more information on how to get involved or how things are progressing stop by the Dakota Territorial Museum, 610 Summit Street in Westside Park, or check out their Facebook page (Dakota Territorial Museum).
