Christensen Fired After 5 Seasons

Dave Christensen was fired as Wyoming's football coach Sunday after the Cowboys lost five of their last six games this season.

He coached Wyoming for five years, taking the Cowboys to two bowl games. Wyoming finished 5-7 after starting 4-2, ending the season with a 35-7 loss to Utah State on Saturday.

Christensen has three years remaining on a contract that runs through 2016. Wyoming said it will pay Christensen's base salary for the remaining three years for a total buyout of $570,024. The buyout will not be paid with state money, the school said.

During last season, Christensen was caught on video screaming profanities at Air Force coach Troy Calhoun after a loss to the Falcons. The school suspended Christensen for a game for the tirade and fined him $50,000.

Christensen went 27-35 in Laramie, and 16-23 in the Mountain West Conference. He took over after a successful stint as Missouri's offensive coordinator and led the Cowboys to a bowl game in his first and third seasons. Wyoming went 8-5 in 2011, but slid back to 4-8 last year.

Get Ready For Winter With A Look At Area Schedules BY JAMES D. CIMBUREK

james.cimburek@yankton.net

While each year the schedule may seem the same, there are always little changes that make my staff and I curious. With the high school winter sports season starting today (Monday), here are a few that we've seen so far.

— The Yankton wrestling program does not wrestle a single dual this year. Every Eastern South Dakota Conference matchup this season is part of either a triangular or quad, with the exception of Watertown. The Watertown ESD dual will actually be a part of Sat-urday's Watertown Dual Tournament. Also, there is no ESD Tournament.

ment. — The Yankton boys' and girls' basketball teams will play four doubleheaders this year, all in non-conference matchups with Sioux Falls schools: Dec. 20 at Washington, Jan. 14 vs. Lincoln, Feb. 8 at O'Gorman and Feb. 18 vs. Roosevelt. Be sure to check the calen-dar in the Press & Dakotan for these games, as the start times will building the number of the second sec be different than usual.

On that topic, at the Dec. 20 Washington doubleheader, the freshmen girls' game is scheduled for a 7 p.m. start, while the var-

Itestimient gins game is surequire for a pain, each mark the sity plays at 6 p.m. — The Allen girls' basketball team will play five games in the first eight days of the season: Dec. 6 at Wakefield, Dec. 7 vs. Cedar Bluffs, Dec. 10 vs. Winnebago, Dec. 12 vs. Ewing and Dec. 13 vs. Homer.

The Parkston wrestling program will compete in four different states during the season, beginning with the Creighton (Neb.) Invi-tational, which has been a regular on the Trojans' schedule for years. Parkston will also compete in "The Clash" Tournament in Rochester, Minn., and in a quadrangular hosted by West Lyon (lowa). — Ponca will dive into the Iowa alphabet soup on Dec. 7, host-ing OA-BCIG (Odebolt-Arthur-Battle Creek-Ida Grove) in boys' and girls' basketball action.

gins basketball action. — Hartington Public and Cedar Catholic boys' and girls' basket-ball teams will play at home on the same date twice this season, Dec. 10 and Jan. 30. They do not play each other. — Freeman Public and Freeman Academy boys' basketball teams will play at home on the same date on Jan. 23 and Feb. 7, while the two girls' teams play at home on the same date only once, on Feb. 4.

on Feb. 4. — Three area wrestling programs will converge in Akron, Iowa, on Dec. 14, at the Westerner Invitational: Elk Point-Jefferson, Creighton-Verdigre (Neb.) and Ponca (Neb.). — With the Nebraska five-day moratorium (no practice, no com-petition) falling Sunday-Thursday, a pair of three-day holiday tourna-ments involving area teams will play Friday-Saturday-Monday. The Shootout on the Elkhorn and the Wayne Holiday Tournament. — The Crofton wrestlers will make the trip to Harrisburg for the Tigers' annual invitational on Jan. 18. It may mark the first time that the Warriors could face Yankton wrestlers in varsity competition, as the Bucks are also at that meet, as are Beresford, Dakota Valley the Bucks are also at that meet, as are Beresford, Dakota Valley and Vermillion.

— The Crofton basketball teams will each have interesting games on their schedules. The boys play Knox Grammar School of Australia on Dec. 9. The girls will travel to Mitchell on Jan. 18 to play at the Hanson Classic, their opponent to be determined.

All six area Nebraska schools that offer wrestling are send-— All six area neorasta schools that other wresting are send-ing teams to the Plainview, Neb, Invitational on Feb. 1. — If Laurel-Concord-Coleridge makes the championship game of the Lewis & Clark Conference boys' or girls' basketball tourna-ment, the Bears' opponent may ask to have the championship venue changed away from Laurel. If that happens, both games will be leaded to wreate available with The for the shoet learn Core. played at an alternate neutral site. The final has been at Laurel-Concord-High School for several years, but this is LCC's first year in the L&C.

The Santee boys' and girls' basketball teams each plays in — The same boys and gins basedoan learns each pays in five different regular season tournaments this season: the Stuart Holiday Tourn. I'm sure I've only scratched the surface about the interesting there the unit has view the instead the surface about the interesting things that will be going on this winter. As always — especially in the winter in the Upper Midwest — schedules are subject to change. Follow us for updates online and in print.
