Lucas Lorenz averaged 46 yards per punt this season.

Two Redfield/Doland players joined Lorenz on special teams in senior long snapper Landon Rohlfs and junior special team player Ephram Albrecht. Albrecht had 19 punt returns for 423 yards and a TD and made six kickoff returns for 137 yards.

Tri-Valley's Joseph Newman and Jaden Krump also worked their way onto the all-state list. Krump, a senior tackle, was a leading force on the offensive line and Newman, a senior defensive end, made 57 solo tackles, seven tackles and two blocked kicks.

The final offensive player to round out the 11B all-state list is senior wide receiver Austin Meester, of Beresford. Meester hauled in 34 catches for 567 yards and six TDs. He recorded 91 receptions for 1,982 yards in his career.

Flandreau senior linebacker Jake Scofield rounds out the defensive selections. Scofield made 63 solo tackles and 29 assisted tackles for 91 total this
