SPORTS DIGEST

South Dakota's Starr Ninth In Buchanan Award Balloting VERMILLION — South Dakota senior

linebacker Tyler Starr finished ninth in the Buck Buchanan Award voting announced Monday by The Sports Network. Starr (Little Rock, Iowa/George-Little Rock HS) was one of 20 finalists for the award, which honors the top defensive player in FCS. Senior Brad Daly became the second Montana State defensive end to win the award in as many seasons. Daly received 64 of 147 first-place votes from a national panel of sports information directors, broadcasters, writers and other dig

Starr is the 2013 Missouri Valley Football Conference Defensive Player of the Year. He was a finalist for the Buchanan Award for the second year in a row. In this year's balloting, Starr received four first-place votes, five second-place votes, eight third-place votes, and six fourth- and fifth-place votes

Starr led the MVFC in sacks (9.0), tackles for loss (15.0) and forced fumbles (4). He finished second on the team in tackles with 71. He also had an interception and was credited with four

Mitchell Standout Neugebauer To

Play Volleyball At MMC Mitchell standout Sidney Neugebauer will attend Mount Marty College and play volleyball for the Lancers, MMC announced on Monday. Neugebauer, a 5-6 outside hiter and defensive specialist, earned honorable mention all-Eastern South Dakota Conference honors this past season. Over the 670 digs and 70 ace serves. 'Sidney will be a great addition to our Mount Marty Campus," said MMC head coach Candice Climer. "Her success in both athletics and academics will be great assets to our program.

The daughter of Ed and Lisa Neugebauer of Mitchell, she plans to major in elementary education. She will receive an academic achievement scholarship in addition to her volleyball

Paluch Earns Second Weekly Honor

BROOKINGS — Senior Steph Paluch (Pierre) earned her second weekly honor Monday when she was named The Summit League Co-Player of the Week after helping the South Dakota Štate women's basketball team to a 2-0 week and a pair of big wins.

Paluch, who was the league's Nov. 18 Player of the Week. was named the College Sports Madness Summit League Mid-Major Player of the Week early Monday. Paluch, a 5-foot-10 guard, averaged 16 points and 3 rebounds while shooting 35 percent from the field, 50 percent from three-point range and was perfect from the free-throw line, sinking all 14 shots. In the upset win over then-No. 12/12 Penn State, Paluch scored a career-high and game-high 18 points on 5-of-12 shooting from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, and 6-for-6 shooting from the charity stripe. In the win over Central Michigan, Paluch scored 14 points, sinking 2 threepointers and making 8 for 8 from the foul line, including going 6 for 6 in the final

1:16 to secure the Jackrabbits' win. South Dakota State returns to action Tuesday when it concludes a threegame homestand with a 7 p.m. game vs.

US Fundraising Mittens Made In China

BY EDDIE PELLS

AP National Writer

The outside of the mittens sav "Go USA." The insides say "Made in China." Less than two years after being criticized for having the U.S. Olympic team's uniforms made in China, the U.S. Olympic Committee has another wardrobe malfunction on its hands. The red-white-and-blue mittens it's selling to raise funds for winter athletes were produced in China. It says so right on the tag on the inside

The USOC is charging $14 a pair for the blue hand-warmers dered in red on the left mitten of that left mitten is the tag, which says the gloves are "100% acrylic," "One Size Fits Most" and "Made in China." USOC spokesman Patrick

Sandusky said the "official" mittens being worn by the athletes at the opening ceremony are made in the USA. They're also available to the public for $98 a pair on the Ralph Lauren website, which proudly proclaims its products are "Made in America" almost everywhere you look on the page for its official Team USA

But the federation, which re-that have the word "Go" embroiceives no government funding and is always trying to find new and "USA" on the right. Also part ways to raise money for its athpoint for its fundraiser. With the games more than a month away, it has raised $500,000 from the mitten sales.

The foreign-made mittens are available at the USOC's official online shop of the U.S. Olympic Team.

The mittens are an American spin on an idea that started in Canada at the last Winter Games. The host country produced "Go Canada" mittens that turned out to be the hot item of the Olympics, raising more than $14 million for the Canadian team.
