The Mount Marty College women's basketball team ended a 12-game skid against ranked opponents in dramatic fashion.

Thanks to a Kellie Winckler game-winning layup at the buzzer after a steal, the Lancers defeated No. 3-ranked Hastings 75-73 on Saturday afternoon at Cimpr Arena in Yankton.

With less than 30 seconds to play and trailing 73-71, Winckler had totaled four fouls and zero points, before she tied the game at 73 with a layup. After a Mount Marty steal on an inbounds pass, Winckler won the game on the scoring end of a lay-in as time expired.

"The bench was counting down and I heard 'one,' and I'm like, shoot I don't have time to catch and go down and go up, so I just jumped and caught it and put it in," Winckler said on her winning shot. "It feels great, I know the team needs me and I know my role on the team, so just to get those two baskets that means, not just me, but Yankton's Cody Vornhagen tries to pin Brandon Valley's Kobi Terpstra during their 120-pound opening round match in the Washington Invitational on Saturday in Sioux Falls.

SIoux FALLS — Yankton senior Spencer Huber won the 132-pound title and six other Bucks took home hardware at the Ray Wellman Warrior Invitational wrestling tournament, held on Saturday at Washington High School.

Adrian, Minnesota, won the team title with 199.5 points, edging out Rapid City Stevens (188) and Brandon Valley (164.5). The Bucks placed seventh with 105.5 points, with wrestlers competing in just 10 of 14 weight classes due to illness and injury.

Huber improved to 10-0 on the season, capping the 3-0 day with a 3-2 victory over Adrian's Skylar Hieronimus in the championship match. Cody Vornhagen (120) and Jordan Lucht (170) also wrestled for titles for Yankton, each placing second. Bashir Abd-Al-Kreem (138) and Kyle Schmidt (182) each placed fourth, Cole Diedrichson (220) finished fifth and Ray Wermers (160) placed sixth for the Bucks.

Yankton is off until Monday, Jan. 4, when the Bucks travel to Brookings for a triangular with the Bobcats and Sioux Falls Roosevelt.
