Calvary Church To Show 'War Room'

Calvary Baptist Church will show the movie "War Room" on Friday, Jan. 15, at 7 p.m. at Calvary Baptist Church, 2407 Broadway. There is no cost for the movie but a free will offering will be taken.

From the award-winning creators of "Fireproof" and "Courageous," "War Room" is a compelling drama with humor and heart that explores the power that prayer can have on marriages, parenting, careers, friendships and every other area of our lives. Tony and Elizabeth Jordan have it all — great jobs, a beautiful daughter, and their dream house. But appearances can be deceiving. Tony and Elizabeth Jordan's world is actually crumbling under the strain of a failing marriage. While Tony basks in his professional success and flirts with temptation, Elizabeth resigns herself to increasing bitterness. But their lives take an unexpected turn when Elizabeth meets her newest client, Miss Clara, and is challenged to establish a "war room" and a battle plan of prayer for her family. As Elizabeth tries to fight for her family, Tony's hidden struggles come to light. Tony must decide if he will make amends to his family and prove Miss Clara's wisdom that victories don't come by accident.

What Would You Change In The New Year?

BY CAREY KINSOLVING AND FRIENDS

"I would like to change my bedtime on New Year's Eve," says Tyler, 11. "I usually go to bed at 10 p.m., but I would like to stay up all night. I would have a great time because we would first party, second play video games and third eat a lot!"

Tyler, if you ever get your way, you may wish you had gone to bed at 10 p.m. on New Year's Eve. Sabrina, 10, has a better idea: "At midnight everyone would yell Happy New Year and then go to bed. In the morning, everyone would open a present, and have a slice of apple pie and hot cocoa."

The roads would be a lot safer with the apple pie and hot cocoa plan.

"I would change my room and my hope in God to make it stronger, and my love for God to make it stronger," says Jenna, 11.

Jenna, I wonder whether changing your room is connected to your hope in and love for God. I've noticed that when my living area gets cluttered, it's harder to focus my mind on God. On the other hand, if your house looks like a museum, and that's all you ever think about, you may have organized God out of your life.

"I would like to change my attitude toward my parents," says Cassidy, 11.

Aside from driving under the influence of alcohol on New Year's Eve, few things in life can set one back as quickly as a bad attitude toward parents. On the positive side, the Bible promises a long life to those who honor their parents (Deuteronomy 5:16).

I once attended a seminar taught by Dr. Neil T. Anderson, professor and author of "Victory Over the Darkness." Anderson showed a video of a woman in a counseling session with a host of problems. Her words, face and body language conveyed distress, anguish and suffering. When Anderson asked the woman about her mother, her stress level increased. He hit a nerve.

After the woman admitted she needed to forgive her mother, Anderson asked her to say it out loud. Watching her try to speak was like going to the dentist to see a root canal. She struggled to get loose as if someone had bound her with rope and duct tape. Her appearance changed immediately after she spoke words of forgiveness.

"I would like to change my attitude toward chores and homework," says Emma, 11. "I hope in the new year, my attitude will change."

I once met Pastor Chuck Swindoll, one of the best-known radio Bible teachers and authors of this generation. After giving him my business card, he reached into his pocket and gave me a card entitled "Attitudes." Here's how it reads:

"Words can never adequately convey the incredible impact of our attitude toward life. The longer I live, the more convinced I become that life is 10 percent what happens to us and 90 percent how we respond to it.

"I believe the single most significant decision I can make on a day-to-day basis is my choice of attitude. It is more important than my past, my education, my bankroll, my success or failures, fame or pain, what other people think of me or say about me, my circumstances or my position.

"Attitude keeps me going or cripples my progress. It alone fuels my fire or assaults my hope. When my attitudes are right, there's no barrier too high, no valley too deep, no dream too extreme, no challenge too great for me."

Winter Women's Bible Studies At Calvary

Winter Women's Bible Studies will soon begin at Calvary Baptist Church. "Joy in the Morning" meets Wednesday mornings from 9-11 a.m. beginning Wednesday, Jan. 6, with childcare available.

They will study Beth Moore's "Children of the Day." The videos will also be shown Monday evenings at 5 p.m. beginning Jan. 11 (no breakout sessions).

"Fire by Night" meets Thursday evenings from 7-8:30 p.m. beginning Thursday, Feb. 4. They will study Priscilla Shirer's "Armor of God."

"Children of the Day" will remind you that your circumstances and conditions are a part of God's perfect plan. Join Beth Moore and walk the shores of Thessalonica with this verse-by-verse Bible study of 1 and 2 Thessalonians. During this nine-week study, you'll learn how to let go of past mistakes and discover your circumstances are not coincidental — God's timing is impeccable! Whether you're facing family crises, medical diagnoses, relationship troubles, doubts or fears, you'll come away encouraged that even though it may not feel that way, you are exactly where Christ wants you to be!

Through "Armor of God," women will learn how the enemy fails when he meets a woman dressed for the occasion. All day, every day, an invisible war rages around you — unseen, unheard, yet felt throughout every aspect of your life. A devoted, devilish enemy seeks to wreak havoc on everything that matters to you: your heart, your mind, your marriage, your children, your relationships, your resilience, your dreams and your destiny. But his battle plan depends on catching you unaware and unarmed. The enemy always fails miserably when he meets a woman dressed for the occasion! This seven-week study is more than merely a biblical description of the believer's inventory, it is an action plan for putting on the armor of God and developing a personalized strategy to secure victory.

The Bible studies are open to all women who would like to attend. Please call the church office (605-665-5594) for more information or to register.
