AREA MOVIES

Opinions are by Philadelphia Inquirer reviewers and The Associated Press. Ratings by the Motion Picture Association of America are: (G) for general audiences; (PG) parental guidance urged because of material possibly unsuitable for children; (PG-13) parents are strongly cautioned to give guidance for attendance of children younger than 13; (R) restricted, younger than 17 admitted only with parent or adult guardian; (NC-17) no one younger than 17 admitted. RATINGS: 4 stars: Excellent; 3 stars: Good; 2 stars: Fair; 1 star: Poor. NOTE: Y — playing in Yankton; V — playing in Vermillion; T — playing in Tripp; Vi — playing in Viborg.

AVATAR (Y-Vi) ★★1/2. James Cameron's mega-expensive, technological marvel is also a whole lot of fun: A gamer generation's "Dances With Wolves," with a human soldier (and his avatar) falling in love with a blue-skinned alien from the planet Pandora 2 hr. 42 PG-13 (violence, aggressive action, alien beasts, adult themes)

DEAR JOHN (Y-Ve) ★★ Moist, star-crossed romance from the Nicholas Sparks novel. It features the attractive and sensitive Amanda Seyfried and Channing Tatum as young lovers separated by war and duty. Lasse Hallstrom's movie opens promisingly, but fails to build, as though focusses on the wrong end of the hourglass. 1 hr. 45 PG-13 (sensuality, battle scenes)

PERCY JACKSON & THE

OLYMPIANS: THE LIGHTNING THIEF (Y-Ve) ★★ Uma Thurman with snakes for hair and a killer star is slaying boss god Zeus' lightning bolt. Percy travels America with two fellow young heroes (Brandon T. Jackson and Alexandra Daddario) to save his mom (Catherine Keener) from the underworld and recover Zeus' bolt. The fitful movie has OK action and effects, but it lacks spark. With Steve Coogan, Rosario Dawson, Sean Bean, Kevin McKidd. PG for action violence and peril, some scary images and suggestive material, and mild language. 119 minutes.

SHERLOCK HOLMES (T) ★★ Conan Doyle's famous consulting detective has Attention Deficit Disorder in Guy Ritchie's clamoring, breathless, turn-of-the-(last)-century action movie. Robert Downey Jr., ripped and ready with the glib riposte, is Holmes, and Jude Law his bland Dr. Watson. The Holmes-as-action-hero conceit could have been fun, if anyone had thought to write a screenplay that made sense. 2 hrs. 08 PG-13 (action, violence, adult themes)

VALENTINE'S DAY (Y-Ve) ★1/2. Gaузily wrapped in stars and roses, Garry Marshall's "Valentine's Day" is exactly what it professes to be: an overdose of sentimentality. A Hallmark card of a film, it's a calculated ploy of comfortable predictability and general cheerfulness. The stars spill out as if from a clown car. They're too numerous to name, but Ashton Kutcher, as a florist, is at the center. Julia Roberts, Anne Hathaway, Jamie Foxx, Taylor Swift (in her feature film debut) and many others find various forms of love on one eventful Valentine's Day in Los Angeles. Like real Hollywood, there's plenty of musical chairs. Marshall's "Pretty Woman," "Runaway Bride" juggles the many overlapping story lines successfully, but the film is remarkably, sometimes nauseatingly overstuffed. It also might boast the most shirtless dudes in a movie since "300." PG-13 for some sexual material and brief partial nudity, 121 minutes.

THE WOLFGIRL (Y) ★1/2. With vampires of every kind running around around Hollywood, the big-screen is ripe for a new take on werewolves. Yet despite a first-rate cast led by Benicio Del Toro, Anthony Hopkins and Emily Blunt, a classy re-creation of late-Victorian England and commendable respect for Lon Chaney's 1941 original movie, this one's more a yawn than a scream. The tone adopted by director Joe Johnston is oppressive to the point of suffocating. Sure, the players here are swept up in the story of a man bearing a horrible curse, so you don't expect them to be having fun. But they don't have to be so funereal about it. The remake casts Del Toro as a wayward aristocrat who transforms into a hairy beast after he returns to his ancestral home. Except for Hopkins, who wrings some devilry out of a pretty silly patriarch's role, the performers are just dead dull. Del Toro's wolf may be a doomed and tortured soul. But that's no reason to doom and torture the audience. R for bloody horror violence and gore. 102 minutes.
