Vonn Tests Shin On Skis For First Time Since Injury

WHISTLER, British Columbia (AP) — Each step was noted with enthusiasm, seen as a sign Thursday that, yes, Lindsey Vonn might very well compete in five Olympic races, might be able to think once again about medals, not medicine.

Painkillers and a Novocaine-like numbing cream for the American's badly bruised right shin? They seemed to dull the aching.

Wearing ski boots, something painful and depressing every time she tried it last week? She yanked them on and did a course inspection.

Actually skiing down a hill for the first time since getting injured Feb. 2, albeit only in a free run and not on the official course? It hurt, sure, but was the most exciting step of all, one that Olympic downhill training session later Thursday.

Alas, that practice wound up being called off after only two racers because of thick fog and low visibility — yet even that development was deemed encouraging by the group known as the Vonnourage.

Madison Takes Triangular At Lennox

LENNOX — Madison claimed victories over Sioux Falls O'Gorman and Lennox in a wrestling triangular at Lennox Thursday.

Madison beat O'Gorman 40-30 and Lennox 64-12. O'Gorman won the other match, 65-17 over Lennox.

Thanks to pins by Seth Dreeszen, Roger Fender, Zach Ordal, and Jared Peters, Madison held on to defeat Sioux Falls O'Gorman.

The difference in the match could be attributed to three critical wins by Matt Lemain, Jon Waba and Mason Riedesel. The points that this trio earned proved to separate them from the Knights by a slim margin.

Madison used four pins and six forfeit matches to help them defeat Lennox.

Madison's Taylor Gussio, Jared Peters, Zach Ordal and Mason Riedesel each pinned their man. Nae Dreeszen also added a 15-4 win over Alan Petrich.

Lennox's Mathew and Michael Mazourek combined for two of their team's three wins in the match. Austin Lynde pinned Jacob Jager had the other.

The Sioux Falls O'Gorman Knights took advantage of 42 free points thanks to Lennox open spots. Lennox did win three of the seven matches they had wrestlers in. This included a 16-0 technical fall by Michael Mazourek over Connor Tomac and pins by Austin Lynde and Tanner Husman.
