Flood Prep. Meetings Slated Across S.D.

DENVER — Officials will hold town hall meetings in eight South Dakota communities Feb. 22-26 to help citizens learn more about the 2010 flood outlook, flood insurance, and flood preparation.

These town hall meetings are open to the public and will provide citizens the opportunity to hear from formal presentations about what they can be doing now to prepare for potential flooding, and also allow for questions to be answered.

The town hall schedule is as follows:

- Monday, Feb. 22 — North Sioux City, City Hall, 4 River Drive, 7-9 p.m.
- Tuesday, Feb. 23 — Vermillion, City Hall, 25 Center St., 7-9 p.m.; Pierre, Chamber of Commerce Community Room, 800 West Dakota Ave., 7-9 p.m.
- Wednesday, Feb. 24 — Sisseton, Fire Hall, 4 East Oak St., 7-9 p.m.; Watertown, Coudington County Extension Bldg., 1910 West Kemp Ave., 7-9 p.m.
- Thursday, Feb. 25 — Aberdeen, Old Aberdeen HS/Alumni Room, 225 3rd Ave SE, 7-9 p.m.; Sioux Falls, Oyat Community Center, 2421 W. 15th St., 7-9 p.m.
- Friday, Feb. 26 — Brookings, City Hall Community Room/lower level, 311 3rd Ave., 7-9 p.m.

These town hall meetings are part of a series of outreach and education efforts the South Dakota Office of Emergency Management and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) are conducting to help residents prepare for potential spring flooding in 2010.

REGION DIGEST

Habitat For Humanity Seeking Families

Habitat for Humanity of Yankton County is seeking two qualified families for our 2010 homes. If you or someone you know is in need of decent, affordable housing, plan to attend an informational meeting at First United Methodist Church at 7 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 18.

The meeting will consist of a brief overview of Habitat for Humanity and our guidelines for consideration. Plan to apply at the meeting; representatives will be available to answer questions.

For more information go to www.habitatofyanktoncounty.com or call Julie Dykstra at 260-4224.

Dakota Territorial Brown Bag On Feb. 19

The experiences of World War II veteran and Yankton native Robert E. Kylius will be discussed during the Dakota Territorial Museum Brown Bag Lunch program, set for 12:10 p.m. Friday, Feb. 19, at the museum, located at 610 Summit, Yankton.

Kylius was a bombardier with the 306th Bomb Group on a mission to bomb the U-boat pens at St. Nazaire, France when his plane was attacked and crashed over Brittany.

Museum volunteer Karen Kubal will present the dramatic story of Kylius' experience with the French Resistance as he evaded capture by the Nazis.

Brown Bag Lunches are held in the Dakota Territorial Museum Conference Room every third Friday of each month.

Citizens Of The Year Reception Feb. 28

The reception honoring Jack and Margaret Lyons as Yankton's 2009 Citizens of the Year will be held Sunday, Feb. 28, at the Yankton Elks Lodge. The reception begins at 1:30 p.m., with a special program set for 2 p.m.

The public is invited to attend.

YSD Dinner/Roast/Auction To Be Held April 9

The fourth annual Yankton School District Foundation's Annual Dinner/Roast/Auction will be held on Friday evening, April 9, at Minerva's.

This year, long-time community member and school supporter Brad Dykes will be roasted/honored; and Matt Michels will serve as master of ceremonies.

Proceeds from the dinner/auctions will be used to provide for the 2010 "Lending-A-Hand" grants to Yankton Public School teachers for their classrooms.

Individuals/businesses interested in purchasing individual tickets or a "Table of 8" or making donations to the live and/or silent auctions, are asked to contact Pauline Rhoades, executive director, at 665-8981 or 660-2033 or by e-mail at paulinerhoades@msn.com.

DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press and Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.

It is the policy of the Press and Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.
