The Gazelles trimmed the deficit to nine points (35-26) late in the third quarter but would never get any closer the rest of the way. "We got away from ourselves once we got the lead. You have to give Watertown credit. They battled back but we kind of left the things at both ends of the floor that helped us get the lead," said Yankton coach Doug Pesicka. "We just didn't stick with the plan in the second quarter." The combination of Brittany Lehner and Tia Hemiller once again proved to be big for the Arrows, but the duo received plenty of help from their teammates. Lehner finished with 17 points and eight rebounds to pace the Arrows and Hemiller added nine points, seven rebounds and seven assists. "Lehner is a good player. She made some good plays but I thought the difference was

BUCKS

In all, the Arrows shot 24 times from beyond the arc while taking just 18 shots inside. "We did a very good job on their inside players; our defense really forced them into a lot of perimeter shots," said Gross. "They did a really nice job with their zone," said Watertown head coach Brian Norberg. "They took away our inside game and forced us to shoot from the outside. "It was not a solid game on either end for us," added Norberg. "The credit goes to coach Gross and his Yankton Bucks." The Bucks now stand at 8-11 overall and 5-8 in the ESD, but beating a team with the Arrows' resume left Gross pleased. "To respond the way they did to show up and prove to Watertown the team they played then weren't the real Yankton Bucks, it's a great effort by all our players and I'm pretty proud of all the guys," said Gross. Yankton hosts Pierre Friday night. The Arrows won in JV action as TJ Korthour scored 14 points and Andrew Zephier added nine counters. Zach Nolz led Yankton with 11 points while Tyler Sternhagen had nine points and 11 rebounds. Dylan Tacke added eight points and three assists. Sophomore action saw Watertown take a 50-41 win. Jackson Seitzinger and Jackson Pasco each led Yankton with 11 points while Seitzinger had four assists. Blake Heiser scored 14 points
