BENEFIT

he said. "I talk about my everyday life and my take on things. I like to think my perspective is a bit different. At least I hope so."

This will be the second time Toomey has been in Yankton as he said he did do a couple of shows here last year.

"I go where they call me," Toomey said. "When you are traveling America doing comedy, you see a lot of small-town mid-America. It is just fun to see the different types of towns and what they are made up of, the different types of people. It kind of rounds you a little bit and helps define what you are able to do. You need to be able to work any kind of crowd."

Toomey added that he likes doing shows that benefit a good cause.

"I am happy to do anything that helps," he said. "It is good to know that I can offer something that might help. I am in a position where what I do, you often think about people who every day do something that helps somebody. I don't get that every day with what I do. It is nice when something like this comes up that you can feel like you are actually helping out."

There are two shows planned for the event. Doors open for the first show, which also includes a meal at 6 p.m. with opening act Bert Broth taking the stage at 7 p.m. followed by Toomey. The second show will begin at 10 p.m., and no meal will be served.

Tickets are available at Lewis and Clark Realty, KYNT, Hy-Vee and the Red Cross office. There are special seating group rates available. For more information, call 605-665-7572.
