Lenten Service Explores Life Changes

The First United Methodist Church invites the public to the weekly Lenten services held on Wednesday evenings in the sanctuary. The second topic in the series for Wednesday, March 3, 6:45 p.m. is entitled "My Life Can Change." The message will remind us that we've all made bad choices, but we don't have to be held prisoner by them. Through the betrayal of Peter and Judas, we discover our responses in similar situations can lead to repentance and life, or despair and death.

Topics for the remaining Lenten services will be, March 10, My Pain Is Understood; March 17, My Life Has a Plan; March 24, I Have the Promise of Eternal Life and March 31, I Have a Hope That Never Dies.

For those interested in the Lenten message but are unable to attend the Wednesday night services, the First United Methodist Church has scheduled a "brown bag" session on Thursdays from 12-1 p.m. in the Upper Room.

For additional information about the Lenten Services, call the church at 665-2991.

Communicating The Bible To Today's Kids

BY RANDY TRAMP

Children's Pastor, Assembly of God

If the apostles lived today, they would probably be on a chat line. So here's a conversation.

Apostle Paul: Timothy Thanks for staying longer in Ephesus

Timothy: Apostle Paul I did command those ppl there to stop teaching false things

Apostle Paul: Timothy Gr8 They shouldn't spend their time on stories that aren't true

Timothy: Apostle Paul Like you told me, it just brings argument and doesn't help God's work

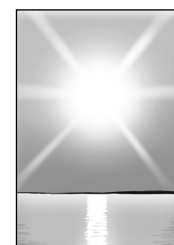

Apostle Paul: Timothy & God's work should be done in faith

Apostle Paul: Timothy 1 more thing, did you know the purpose of this command?

Timothy: Apostle Paul I remember in your letter, you telling me the purpose was love

Apostle Paul: Timothy - I can tell you studied the letter. You're like the Bereans

Timothy: Apostle Paul The 1st letter you

REFLECTIONS

Facebook or My Space to send out his message?

I believe the answer is yes. Would Paul have texted: Timothy OMW (On my way) or IOMH but Jesus is my strength (IOMH-In over my head)

The Gospel message stays the same; the way we distribute it changes. I was reluctant to start text messaging. But I found out that there were many people that only communicated via texting. If I wanted to get a hold of sent me had a lot of instructions in it. We have to watch our step

Would Paul have written 1 Corinthians 9:22 like this: 2 da weak, I became weak, 2 win da weak, I have become all thgs 2 all men so that by all possible means I might save some? Would he have twittered: I am weak, so He can be strong in me today. Would Paul have used them I had to text. (I'm finding my daughter responds much better when I text her, concerning her chores- lol)

In a day when even emails are somewhat outdated by our youth, trying to stay on the cutting edge of communication is a challenge. Facebook is a great way to keep tabs with the teenagers. They are more open in their messages on facebook than in person.
