ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO

Wednesday, February 3, 1937 · Spearfish creek, a stream that flows so swiftly that it freezes from the bottom up, is out of its banks in Spearfish. Almost annually "anchor ice" accumulates on the bottom of the stream bed during the winter, forcing the water to rise several feet above its regular channel.

Snows may blow and winds chill but there is one warm, cozy spot in Yankton - and the smells of delicious cooking and sight of expertly prepared and efficiently cooked foods, well it just makes the Dakota theater the one spot where every woman in Yankton, yes, and many menfolks, will want to be three afternoons of this week.

Saturday, February 3, 1962

 South Dakotans are going to get a weather prod this weekend to start thinking about spring and summer. Temperatures which aimed today at 70 in the west and 60 in the east are due for a repeat performance Sunday.

Height was one of the problems Marron, the head boy's basketball coach at HCC, faced when the season began. A lack of experience was another. But the Trojans have overcome those difficulties and have zipped to a 10-3 start.

 Nearly 40 states have indicated interest in the Supercollider Super Conductor, and it's important South Dakota begins making a bid, Sen. Tom Daschle said. The U.S. Department of Energy has scheduled a briefing next Tuesday to explain the application project.
