With the 54-51 lead, the Coyotes were able to cash in with a pair of free throws from Hegge, but the Kangaroos answered quickly with a trey by Ellise O'Connor, shaving USD's lead to 56-54.
However, two more defensive rebounds and four free throws from Hegge in the final 26 seconds preserved the 60-54 Coyote win.
"We were pretty disruptive with some blocked shots and some big rebounds," Williams said. "Our kids remained poised and confident with the shots that they were taking; the fact that we've won some games helps."
"It was neat to see how confident they played in the last two and a half minutes," the Williams added.
It was the second straight game

Louie and he gets it to Kover, and he gets pretty creative.
"That really helps with our offensive flow."
A blistering first half also helps with that flow. The Coyotes were in control from the start, building a 36-25 lead at the 5:54 mark and taking a 46-37 cushion into halftime.
USD's lead was as much as 19 points — 65-46 — midway through the second half, before the Kangaroos climbed back to within 67-60 with 5:11 to play.
All drama was removed thanks to a 12-0 run by the Coyotes before UMKC hit a corner three with six seconds left.
"We've done a good job defensively, we just haven't been able to score consistently to let us have a decent chance to win games," said Boots, whose team has now scored at least 79 points just twice since late December.
Keying the Coyote defense was senior Ricardo Andreotti, who had in which the Coyotes had to hold off a talented Summit League team in the final minutes.

USD led 2nd-place Oral Roberts by 14 points in the second half Monday and held on for a 60-57 win.
"In the second half, they came out in a zone and kind of put us back on our heels," Hegge said. "That's two games in a row where we've had good sized leads and they've made a run at us, but it shows our toughness that we've been able to weather those runs."
Hegge scored 14 of USD's 19 2nd-half points to finish with 27 points. The former Crofton Warrior completed the double-double with 11 rebounds while also finishing with four assists and three blocks.
Roche finished with 10 points as Alexis Yackley had five assists.
Hall-Jones was held to 12 points while Neziyanya worked for 11 points for the Kangaroos, who fall to 15-9 overall and 6-6 in the Summit.
The Coyotes, who sit alone in 12 rebounds and two blocks. Westbrook chipped in with eight rebounds and four steals.

The focus now for the Coyotes? A rematch with SDSU (19-6, 11-2), which demolished the Coyotes by 30 in their first meeting, on Thursday night at 7 p.m. in the Dome.
Helping give USD extra confidence going is that five of the final six games of the season will be played in Vermillion.
"Every team that comes through here from now until the end of February, we're going to try to knock their heads off," Westbrook said. "We go into every game
