come known as a Lancer-killer. "Statler wrecked us last game (a 67-56 Bronco victory on January 8 in Hastings) and she did it again this game too," Youngberg said.

Hastings coach Jeff Dittman said he believes that Statler is one of the best low-post players in the entire country. "She is very strong and very physical and has a nice touch on the ball. She also has decent movement for the type of strength that she has.'

A three-pointer by Sophia Mc-Dermott with 12 minutes remaining in the game gave Hastings their first lead since the very first basket of the ballgame. A Statler basket with five minutes to go stretched the Bronco lead to nine, but Mount

Marty would not back down. With 9.8 seconds left and the Lancers down two, Sophomore April Winne was fouled going to the basket and hit two huge free throws to tie things up at 64, which s where the score would stay as the teams went to overtime.

Overtime would be all Broncos, as Courtney Spawn hit two threepointers and Statler would add six points to her total.

With the loss, Mount Marty falls to 15-12 overall and 9-9 in the Coming into the game trailing nineteenth-ranked Hastings by just one game for fifth-place in the conference standings, this one devastates the Lancers hopes of making the NAIA national tournament.

"This was a big game, we needed that win," said Youngberg. "Hopefully we can be positive and keep our heads up because we have two important games left.

Hastings, who ended up with four players in double figures, improves to 19-8 overall and 11-7 in the GPAC.

For the Lancers, Forsch scored a team-high 17 points and also grabbed five rebounds. Gross finished with a double-double, scoring 14 points and tallying 11 rebounds. Winne finished with 11 points to round out those in double figures.

Mount Marty has two games remaining, both on the road and both against top-five nationally ranked teams. The Lancers travel to fifth-ranked Morningside on Wednesday and close out the regular season on Saturday in Seward where they battle second-ranked Concordia.
