Glisar increased USD's women's indoor high jump record to 5-10 1/2, breaking the old mark of 5-9 3/4 that she set on Jan. 26 at the Bill Hillenbrand USD Alumni Meet. The mark puts her at the top of the Summit League performance list and is 26th-best in Division I.

Mettler won the men's 3,000-meters in 8:09.82, which cut five seconds off the previous USD record of 8:15:06 that he set at the Jack Johnson Invitational on Jan. 19. His time is tops on the Summit League performance list.

Buell recorded a 14-2 mark to break USD's women's indoor pole vault record of 13-11 3/4 that she set last weekend. Her record vault is the third-best mark in Division I and best in the Summit League. Including Buell, USD placed three in the top-five in the women's pole vault. Madison Mills placed second with a 13-1 3/4 height and Hunter Wilkes placed fifth at 12-2.

Emily Grove was third at 12-8 while competing unat Outside of those performances, Jeff O'Connell placed fifth in the seeded men's long jump (22-11 3/4), Michael Burrus placed seventh in the men's 60-meter dash (6.95) and Katie Wetzstein recorded a personal best 4:56.53 in
