

OBITUARIES

Lyle Buchanan

Lyle R. Buchanan, 96, of Irene, died Saturday, February 23, 2013, at the Wakonda Heritage Manor in Wakonda.

A memorial service will be 10:30 a.m. on Friday, March 1, 2013, at the Wintz & Ray Funeral Home in Yankton, South Dakota with Pastor Dana Steinwand officiating. Inurnment will be in the Yankton City Cemetery with military honors provided by the Yankton Ernest-Bowyer VFW Post 791. A gathering of friends and family will be Thursday from 4-8 p.m. at the Wintz & Ray Funeral Home with the family present from 6-8 p.m.

Honorary Pallbearers are Verlyn Rye, David Rye, Roger Hora, Duane Hacecky, Dr. Don Lepp, and Billy Ray Douglas.

Lyle Buchanan was born March 30, 1916, in Burr, Nebraska to William and Mabel (DeFreece) Buchanan. Lyle grew up on the family farm and attended country school through the 8th grade, some of those years being taught by his aunt Katherine. He attended Tecumseh High School in Tecumseh, Nebraska and joined the United States Army in 1942. Lyle fought during World War II, including battles in Northern France, Rhineland, Ardennes, and Central Europe, until he was honorably discharged in 1945. After the war, Lyle moved to South Dakota and started a roller skating rink in Tyndall, South Dakota. He later drove the Hamms beer truck for a few years until he began farming, first in the Mission Hill area and then buying the family farm in rural Irene in 1961. He married Dureen Huber on November 9, 1947 in Yankton, South Dakota and together had two boys: Randall in 1956 and Russell in 1965. Lyle and Dureen moved to Yankton in 1992 and lived there until 2008 when they moved back to the farm to live with their son Russell. Lyle spent the last three months of his life at the Wakonda Heritage Manor.

Lyle was a member of Our Redeemer Lutheran Church, where he served on the church council. He was involved in pork producers and was a 4-H leader and Luther League leader. He also served on the election board and the Jamesville Township board. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, playing pool, woodworking, and was an avid Minnesota Twins fan.

Survivors include his wife, Dureen of Wakonda; son, Russell (Susan) Buchanan of Irene; three grandchildren: Dillon, Tessa, and William; sister, Norma Eilers of Sterling, Nebraska; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; son, Randall Buchanan; two sisters: Irma and Leala; and brother-in-law, Alfred Eilers.

Shirley Fink

Mass of Christian Burial for Shirley J. Fink, 80, of Bloomfield, Neb., is at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Feb. 27, 2013, at St. Andrew's Catholic Church, Bloomfield. The Rev. Michael Schmitz will be celebrant, with burial in the Bloomfield City Cemetery.

Visitation is 5-8 p.m. Tuesday at St. Andrew's Catholic Church, Bloomfield, with a 6 p.m. wake service.

Brockhaus Funeral Home of Bloomfield is in charge of arrangements.

Shirley died Saturday, Feb. 23, 2013, at the Bloomfield Good Samaritan Society, Bloomfield.

Shirley was born January 4, 1933 to William and Hilda Bruns on a small farm one-half mile east of Bloomfield. She attended St. Andrews Parochial School until the 6th grade. After the family moved five miles northwest of Bloomfield, she attended the Country School District 143 and graduated from Bloomfield High School in 1950.

Shirley taught in the rural schools for three years after attending Wayne State College. On July 13, 1953, she married Gerald Fink at St. Andrew's Catholic Church in Bloomfield. They were blessed with six children, Dan, Doug, Monica, Brian, Brad and Michelle.

Gerald and Shirley farmed in the Bloomfield area. Country life was Shirley's priority, helping her husband wherever possible. She was a leader for the Cloverettes 4-H Club and a member of a county extension club. Her joy was gardening and caring for her beautiful flowers. She entered many bouquets and baked goods at the Knox County Fair. She loved to embroider, and was very active in catering and cake decorating.

In December 1972 they purchased a home in Bloomfield. Shirley was employed at Bloomfield Schools as a teacher's aide, and later as kitchen manager. She was a member of ASFSA (American school food service administration). This was very important to her and she especially loved the school children. Her retirement came in 1995 due to health reasons. Shirley and Gerald have managed the Bloomfield American Legion Pavilion since 1976. They have made many friends and have seen many changes over time. She will forever be remembered for the foods she prepared, especially her "Shirley Taverns," along with her love of music and dancing.

In recent years, Shirley was a member of Senior Citizens and the Ritzy Red Hatters and sang with the Esther Hoffman Singers that entertained at the Bloomfield Good Samaritan Center. Shirley and Gerald have enjoyed playing pitch with their friends in a card club which was organized in 1972.

Most important was her family and being there for them. She will be greatly missed and forever loved by her many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Shirley is survived by her husband Gerald of nearly 60 years, sons Daniel (Michelle) Fink, Douglas (Susan) Fink, Brian (Amanda) Fink, Bradley (Jennifer) Fink; daughters Monica (Mike) McManigal and Michelle (Mark) Boecker; 11 grandchildren, Brady Fink, Brock Fink, Joshua (Jenni) Fink, Jeremy Fink, Alisha (Tim) Bartling, Michael Shad (Melanie) McManigal, Kory (Ashley) McManigal, Lee Ann (Matt) Keating, Andi Johanna Fink, Devan Fink, Breanna Boecker; 12 Great Grandchildren; Sisters Wilma (Roman) Wortmann, Viola (Gaylan) Suhr, Arlis Erickson, Mary Jane (Art) Huber; Brother Robert (Judy) Bruns; Brother-in-Laws Ron (Sheryl) Fink; Sister-in-Laws Verlyn (Lyle) Thomas, Janelle Skradde and Bette Fink; many other relatives and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents, a granddaughter (McManigal); twin grandsons, Chad and Christopher McManigal; Brothers-in-Law Marilyn Barger, Gary Erickson, Les Falter, William Skradde and Rodney Fink.
