Goetz

'I think, in the back of my mind, I knew that if I wanted to do something for the community, I could do more by doing that job than anything else,' he stated. 'I think, subconsciously, that is part of the reason I kept doing it.'

mission meeting, a moment of silence was held for Goetz. 'We definitely appreciate his service to Yankton for so many years,' Mayor Nancy Wenand stated. Commissioner Charlie Gross, who has been on the board for 18 years, said the history that Goetz brought to the commission, as well as his legal acumen, was invaluable.

One of the final pieces of life advice Goetz offered the Press & Dakotan in 2009 is something we would probably all do well to remember: 'Common sense will take you a long way in this world - if you bother to use it.'
