

USD's Firsick Earns Summit League Honors

ELMHURST, Ill. — South Dakota senior pole vaulter Bethany Firsick has been named the Summit League women's indoor track and field athlete of the week, announced on Tuesday.

Firsick won the pole vault at the Dakota Realty Alumni Meet, clearing 14-1 3/4, to rank sixth in the nation and second in the Summit League.

It was the first of the season and fourth honor overall for Firsick.

Western Illinois' Nathaniel Marshall, who recorded a toss of 66-3 3/4 to finish second at the SIU Invitational, earned men's honors.

USD will compete at the Iowa State Classic this weekend.

Hertzing Earns 10th Summit League Award

ELMHURST, Ill. — South Dakota freshman Greysen Hertzing capped the final week of the regular season with her 10th Summit League women's diver of the week honors, announced on Tuesday.

Hertzing finished first in the one meter with 245.10 points and took fifth in the three meter with a score of 268.65.

South Dakota State senior Clark Koucourek earned men's honors.

Youmans At QB Club

The Yankton Quarterback Club will meet Wednesday at noon at the Elks Lodge, 504 West 27th Street, Yankton.

This week's speaker is Yankton coach Luke Youmans. Youmans, who is head coach for both the gymnastics and track and field teams, will talk about both programs.

The public is invited to attend.

Next week's speaker will be South Dakota State head football coach John Steigemeier.

SDSU Women's Basketball Team To Wear Pink On Saturday

BROOKINGS — As part of the Coaches vs. Cancer campaign, the South Dakota State women's basketball team will wear pink jerseys during Saturday's game vs. Western Illinois at 4 p.m.

The Under Armour jerseys will then be placed on an online auction at GoJacks.com at 6 p.m. Saturday, with all proceeds benefitting Coaches vs. Cancer. The auction will be open for two weeks, closing at 5 p.m. Feb. 17. Last year, over $1,000 was raised through the online auction of the pink jerseys.

All Jackrabbits fans attending Saturday's game are encouraged to wear pink, and 500 pink balloons will be distributed to the SDSU student section.

SDSU's Witzmann Named To College All-Star Bowl

BROOKINGS — Former South Dakota State football player Bryan Witzmann has been selected to play in the College All-Star Bowl later this week.

A native of Houlton, Wis., Witzmann earned All-America honors at left tackle during both the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

He started all 49 of the team's games during his four-year Jackrabbits career.

Witzmann will suit up for the Nationals team and wear uniform No. 74. He will report to Greenville, S.C., on Tuesday, with practices, meetings with scouts and social events planned for Wednesday and Thursday. The game, which will be played at Paladin Stadium on the Furman University campus, is scheduled to be televised on CBS Sports Network starting at 5 p.m. Friday.

S.D. ASA Scholarship Deadline March 1

SDSU Soccer Camp Set

BROOKINGS — The South Dakota State women's soccer coaching staff has announced on Monday their 2014 summer camps and clinics schedule. The summer camps and clinics include the Field Player and Goalkeeper Camp and the Future Jacks Soccer Clinic.

The Field Player and Goalkeeper Camp is scheduled for Sunday, July 27, through Wednesday, July 30. The camp is open to all boys and girls from 9-19 years of age and all skill levels.

Multiple options are available for camp participants, including resident, commuter, team and day camper.

The Future Jacks Soccer Clinic is scheduled for Sunday, July 27, through Tuesday, July 29. The clinic is open to younger players from ages 4-9 who want to come for a one hour evening session filled with fun soccer games in a proven learning environment. The evening sessions run from 6:45-7:45 p.m.

There are many benefits from attending soccer camps at SDSU: all sessions are led by US Soccer- and NSCAA-certified coaches, improve as a player, use great facilities, experience the perfect combination of instruction and competition, prepare for the high school season, be seen by college coaches and have fun.

Application deadline is Friday, July 18, 2014. If you miss the deadline, a spot may still be open, so please call.

For more questions please contact head soccer coach Lang Wedemeyer at Lang.Wedemeyer@sdsstate.edu or at 605-688-0700.
