Woman of Distinction Tickets Available

The Yankton Community Leaders Committee will honor three women at the sixth annual "Woman of Distinction" Luncheon on Monday, Feb. 17, starting at 10:30 a.m. in the main dining room at Mount Marty College. There will be three awards, one for "Professional Leadership" and one award for "Community Leadership" and a new award this year for "Rising Star." The Women Community Leaders Committee received ten nominations from people in the community that recognized outstanding women in the Yankton area for their contribution to community service and professional leadership as an employee or volunteer. Plan to come to the luncheon and support this year's nominees. The winner from each category will be announced at the Feb. 17 luncheon. The nominees in the Community Service Category include: Pauline Aklund and Lois Halbur. In the Professional Category the nominees include: Jennifer Johnke, Gail Kennedy and Marcy Moser. The nominees for the Rising Star Category are: Elizabeth Allemann, Bridget Benson, Frani Kieffer, Rebecca Peterson and Crystal Nelson. The luncheon will include a presentation titled "You! The Everyday Hero: The Truth About the Power of Kindness" from keynote speaker Amy Dee Kristensen. Luncheon tickets are available by going to: www.yanktonsd.com/distinctionluncheon or the Yankton Chamber & Visitors Center. You may also contact any of the members of the Women Community Leaders Committee which include: Nancy Sternhagen, Kellie Chavis, Kathie Gerstner, Jean Huhhoff, Katie Huhhoff, Amy Johnson, Teresa Kokesh, Emma Laird, Jane Pugh, Joleen Smith, Deb Specht, Paula Tacke and Gert Thomas.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO
Monday, February 13, 1939
 • The Boy Scouts of Yankton have been joining the observance of the 29th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America, and their activities will continue into this week, with a court of honor broadcast, a regular meeting on Thursday which will include a Lincoln program and a mothers party on next Saturday night at which the Scouts will entertain their mothers at G.A.R. hall.
 • A special memorial service for Pope Pius XI will be held at Mount Marty convent and college on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. Yankton civic and professional bodies have been invited to join in the special observance and have accepted. There will be a solemn procession to the chapel headed by the city civic and professional groups and students of the college will place a wreath on the catafalque.

50 YEARS AGO
Thursday, February 13, 1964
 • There'll be some changes made at South Dakota State college thanks to legislative action last weekend erasing "college" and adding "university" to the institution's official name.
 • Percy Stielow will be the beneficiary of a special night to be held at Nash Gym on the campus of Yankton College, Monday, March 2. Bob Shoemaker, president of the Yankton Quarterback Club stated that Southern State Teachers College and Yankton College have agreed to a basketball game with all proceeds turned over to Stielow, the Greyhound cager who received a broken leg in a game last Friday night.

25 YEARS AGO

Monday, February 13, 1989
 • There's a reason why bus lines give themselves speedy, zippy names like Greyhound and Jack Rabbit. Ruth Pearson understands why from experience. She went from knowing nothing about the bus line business to being Yankton's sole commercial bus agent in the whirlwind pace of two days back in June of 1986.
 • Springfield area residents will celebrate "A Century of Weddings" Feb. 18 at a fashion show and exhibit in the school gym, with items on loan from area people including wedding garments and memorabilia.
