Coyote Hoops Teams Trending In Opposite Directions

Including Thursday's loss at Fort Wayne, the Coyote men are now 1-11 in road games this season — and that doesn't include a 1-point overtime loss to Wyoming in a game moved to Rapid City. It's hard to pinpoint exactly why the men's team cannot win on the road (I haven't covered a true road game this season), but it's easy to see that those problems are cause for concern. Depending on how the Coyotes fare today (Saturday) at last-place IUPUI, the USD men could be jeopardized of falling into the seventh seed for the Summit League Tournament. On the other side of things, the Coyote women's team has won four of its last five games since starting 0-4 in Summit League action. USD hosts first-place IUPUI (which is tied with South Dakota State) today at 2 p.m. A win there could go a long way toward vaulting the Coyotes into the No. 3 spot in the standings — which is exactly where they were picked. A lot is still yet to be determined in conference play, but at this point, those pre-season projections are proving to be rather accurate.

MMC Baseball Trip Canceled

The Mount Marty College baseball team has canceled its scheduled season-opening trip to Topeka, Kan., which was scheduled for today (Saturday) through Monday. The scheduled site was not ready for play due to poor conditions, and no other area fields were available. MMC is now scheduled to open its season on Feb. 22 in Topeka, Kan., facing Kansas Wesleyan.

'Ole Hansen' Night Set For Tuesday

The schedule for the event is as follows: 3:30 p.m. — JV girls' game (YHS Main Gym); sophomore boys' game (auxiliary gym, south court) 4 p.m. — 9th grade boys' A game (Middle School old gym) 4:45 p.m. — sophomore girls' game (auxiliary gym, south court); JV boys' game (main gym) 5:15 p.m. — 9th grade boys' B' game (YMS old gym)
