With Jan Wiersma, a pastor and chaplain, McVay tells how her practice of prayer and meditation have given her the means to "choose to be happy" in all circumstances. This event is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Shann Doerr at (605) 665-2456 or churchsec@iw.net/.

Profit And Loss: Church Isn't A Business

BY REV. DON BARBALACE
Peace Presbyterian Church

I was dismayed recently to see that the governing council of a certain church had prepared a "profit and loss statement" (P&L, as it is called in business) as their monthly financial report. It is a congregation that sees itself as a business. This is a serious misunderstanding of what the church is, and it has repercussions for doing ministry. Do they expect to pay corporation tax on the "profit" shown in the P&L? No, of course not. Why? Because they are non-profit! Suppose the P&L shows a loss. It did, of course, so they berated the minister for being inadequate as a "rain maker" (another business term). Instead of helping a new minister grow and learn to be a minister, the council drove him off. He was too inexperienced to cope with their "we are a business" mentality. They berated him for going out of town on necessary denominational business ("Are we paying for that?") because they did not see it as their church's productivity.

REFLECTIONS

The secretary tattled to the council that "he was doing other things" in his office besides their church work as though he were a production employee with a quota of widgets to produce each day. Such things foster an atmosphere of hostility and distrust.

The church is not a business. It is a non-profit organization, but at best it should operate on a break-even basis. If you finish the year in the black, it means you did not spend enough on mission, ministry and outreach. A congregation's productivity is not measured in money raised, but in intangible things in the kingdom of God. How many lives were touched with comfort and compassion? How many people had their faith strengthened by effective preaching? How many hungry people were fed? How often did people encounter the risen Christ through the members of the church? How many changed from warming a pew to being a disciple of Christ? Such things as these are priceless, even when they don't enhance the "bottom line" of the P&L.

UCC Pastor Intro. Set

The United Church of Christ (Congregational), located at Fifth and Walnut in Yankton, is pleased to announce that the Rev. Molly Carlson from Modesto, Calif., has accepted our call and moved to Yankton. She began serving this congregation on Jan. 6. To introduce herself to the community, the church and pastor will offer a unique seven-week event during Lent, entitled "What's the least I can Believe and Still be a Christian?" The church and community-wide study will be based on an engaging new book about mainline and moderate Christianity. Participants will study things Christians don't need to believe, as well as things Christians do need to believe. Everyone is welcome to attend. Discussion groups are scheduled at two convenient times each week during Lent. The Wednesday evening sessions will begin with a light supper at 5:30 p.m. beginning on March 5, followed by discussion. The second session begins on Sunday morning March 2, after worship, following a light lunch. For more information, call the church office at 665-7320 or visit our website www.yanktonucc.org. Come meet our delightful Pastor Molly and make new friends as we prepare for a beautiful and meaningful Easter experience.
