Williams At QB Club

The Yankton Quarterback Club will meet Wednesday at noon at the Elks Lodge, 504 West

27th Street, Yankton. This week's speaker is University of South Dakota women's basketball coach Amy Williams, who will talk about the Coyotes and their ongoing season. USD is 15-12 overall and 6-6 in the Summit League entering the final week of the regular season. The Covotes host North Dakota State on Thursday and South Dakota State on Sunday.

This will be the final Quarterback Club meeting of the 2013-14 school year. The public is invited to

USD Vaulters Earn Summit League Honors

ELMHURST, III. — South Dakota pole vaulters Kevin Sarehkhani and Emily Grove have been named the Summit League's men's and women's Indoor Track and Field Athletes of the Week Sarehkhani, a senior, set a new personal-best height of 16 feet, 10 3/4 inches during the meet, upping his previous best by two inches. That mark places him second in the event on the Summit League performance list.

Grove, a junior, collected her second-straight Summit League Women's Indoor Track and Field Athlete of the Week honor after setting Division I's top vault this season while finishing sixth at the

USATF Indoor Championships on Sunday. Grove shared honors with Omaha senior Sami Spenner, who set a league record with her ninth honor. She finished second at the USATF Championship in the pentathlon, scoring a school-record 4.498 points. She also set school records in the long jump (20-9 3/4) and 60-meter hurdles (8.52 seconds)

South Dakota's track and field teams will compete at the Summit League Indoor Championships in Fort Wayne, Ind., starting on Friday.

Three From USD Earn All-Tourney Honors

VERMILLION — South Dakota infielders Yvon Minogue, Matley Jones and Lindsey Boyd have been named to the Warhawk Classic All-Tournament Team announced by the host institution, Louisiana Monroe. The Coyotes went 3-2 at the tournament and are 7-5 overall.

All three Coyotes hit .400 or better at the Classic. Minogue hit safely in all five games and was 6for-13 overall with two doubles and three RBIs. Jones did all of her damage in two wins against Alcorn State, going 5-for-5 with a home run, three doubles and six RBIs. Boyd had two hits in three of the five games and was 6-for-15 during the tournament with five RBIs and six runs scored. She also stole four bases, giving her 101 in her colle-
