SPORTS DIGEST

Stiegelmeier At QB Club

The Yankton Quarterback Club will meet Wednesday at noon at the Elks Lodge, 504 West 27th Street, Yankton.

This week's speaker is South Dakota State University head football coach Johns Stiegelmeier. Stiegelmeier, who became SDSU's all-time winningest football coach this past season, has coached the Jackrabbits to a 120-86 record in 18 seasons at the helm. The Jackrabbits earned a third consecutive FCS playoff bid in 2014, falling to eventual champion North Dakota State in the second round. SDSU recently announced its 2015 recruiting class, which includes multiple players from Yankton. The public is invited to attend

MMC Coaches Corral Tonight

Mount Marty College will host a "Coaches Corral" event today (Tuesday) from 5:30-7:30 p.m. at Czeckers in Yankton. MMC basketball coaches Tom Schlimgen and Andrew Baker will be there to talk about their ongoing seasons, while coaches for spring sports will preview their seasons.

Free beer and reduced-price burgers and wings will be available during the event. The public is invited to attend

MMC Youth Hoops Tourn. March 7

Mount Marty College will host its final youth basketball tour-nament for the 2014-15 season on March 7. Games will be played at Laddie E. Cimpl Arena, with cost based on the number of games played.

Each tournament is open to boys' and girls' teams in grades 4-7. For more information, contact Andy Bernatow at abernatow@mtmc.edu.

GREGORY — The Gregory Gorillas jumped out to a 52-15 halftime lead and coasted to a 76-49 victory over Lower Brule in boys' basketball action on Monday.

Mason Juracek led four Gorillas in double figures with 20 points. Jayd VanDerWerff netted 18 points. Robert Vomacka had 12 points, Sean Kafka had 11 points and Gavin Thomas snagged nine rebounds in the victory.

For Lower Brule, Lawrence Flute, Jr., scored

16 points to lead the way. Ben Long Crow added Gregory, 11-4, travels to Scotland on Friday. Lower Brule hosts Kadoka Area on Saturday.

"I am able to post up at times, I can drive or step out and shoot it. That's what I hope to utilize at USD next season.

Over the past four years Hagedorn has tried to become a solid passer and takes pride in how many assists he can dish out.

'That and my ball-handling have improved the most," he said. "I also like being the leader and bring the guys together as a team. It's something I really work Hagedorn is the third-leading scorer in the state with an average of 17.1 points per game. Tyler has hit 45 percent from 3-point range and is shooting 77 percent from the foul line.

Like Bradley, Hagedorn has plenty on his plate in the waning weeks of his senior season. His main goal is to bring the Panthers their first and only Class A state championship since 1987 this March in Lincoln.

But Hagedorn also takes time to check in on the Coyotes' men basketball season. "It will be sad when I get done here," he said. "It's something I will really miss but South Dakota will be a new start and I can't wait to get up there with coach raig) Smith and the res the guys.

Norfolk head coach Ben Ries knows a little about playing for South Dakota. Ries played for the Coyotes for four season and later served as a graduate assistant.
"It's been really fun to watch Tyler's development over the years," Ries said. "We had a conversation the other day about finishing his career here on a strong note with a topper on it. I think he took that to heart and had a great performance tonight."

Ries said Hagedorn has earned his accolades with all the hard work he has put in. "A lot of his work hasn't been seen by people but he has put in his time and he is reaping the benefits from that now," Ries said. "South Dakota is going to get a tremendous player. Of course that's somewhere that holds a special place in my heart and I look forward to him going up there and doing tremendous things for the Coyotes." Ries, considered by many to be the best male player ever to come out of Norfolk High, wouldn't go quite as far as saying Hagedorn fits that

"Tyler has certainly put his name on the Mount Rushmore of basketball," Ries said. "We look forward to him doing great things down the stretch and as a Coyote."

The biggest problem for Wynot, though, was Winnebago senior guard Cory Cleveland. Not typically an offensive weapon, Cleveland made all six of his three-point attempts in the first half and finished the game with 22 points. "One of the guys who's not a normal big scorer stepped out and hit a bunch of threes," Heimes said. The two teams traded leads late in the second quarter, and Wynot got within 28-27 on an Austin Lange basket. Winnebago points of the quarter to lead

With a quick turnaround for a game tonight (Tuesday) against Irene-Wakonda, the Blue Devils no doubt can take away some lessons from the Winnebago loss.

'They're taller and faster and can shoot really well," Tristan Wieseler said. "It helps us identify what we need to work on.'
