season. I think 'Young Frankenstein' will kill it this season. We are excited to have Keith back.

"STRANGERS ON A TRAIN"

Two strangers. One conversation. The perfect mur-

LCTC will present the thriller "Strangers on a Train." The director is still to be announced for this performance.

We decided to do a spooky show for October." Gill said. "It's good to switch

One reason LCTC decided to do the show was because the performance required five men and two woman.

"A lot of our characters this season are female- cast heavy," Peitz said.

The play is based off the classic 1951 film by Alfred Hitchcock.

In the play, strangers Guy Haines and Charles Bruno meet. Charles suggest that the two could get away with murder. Guy thinks that Charles isn't serious.

But Bruno is serious — dead serious. 'Strangers On A Train' will run Oct. 1-4 and 8-11.

"THE BEST CHRISTMAS PAG-EANT EVER"

LCTC is changing it up this year by partnering with Yankton Children's Theatre Company (YCTC) for their Christmas production of "The Best Ĉhristmas Pageant Ever," directed by LCTC board member Sandy Vavra.

This is something new," Gill said. "(YCTC) gives kids the talent and the confidence to get up on stage and then they end up transitioning into our theatre. We have shared a lot of directors and actors with the YCTC, and we borrow costumes back and forth.

So why not do this together?" The theatre companies will split the expenses and profits of the production.

This will be the first one we ever start on together," Peitz said. "We are really going to do make this a team effort.'

Peitz and Gill both said they are excited for this hilarious classic.

"It is about these naughty kids who have been in and out of foster care homes. Peitz said. "The kids are basically on their own. They get into all kinds of trouble."

The children case worker decides that the best thing for the kids is to send them to church and have them attend Sunday School. "The kids decide that they want to be part of the Christmas pageant," Peitz said. "But this lady isn't going to let them use her baby as Jesus if these kids are part of the play."

Though the play is a comedy, it sends the serious message that Christmas is for everyone Peitz said.

"The Best Christmas Pageant Ever" will run Dec. 3-6 and 10-13.

"STEEL MAGNOLIAS"

After 10 years of waiting, LCTC will conclude its 54th season with "Steel Magnolias," directed by Rusty Ruth, a new director in the Yankton community.

"This a play that comes up continuously,"Peitz said. "So we are very excited."

"Steel Magnolias" is a drama about a group of humorously sarcastic, gossipy ladies in a small town beauty

Though comical, the play builds to a moving, dramatic conclusion that shows the characters underlying strength and love. "It was a big hit when we did it before," Gill said. "We know that Yankton audiences will be excited to see it again." "Steel Magnolias" will run Feb. 4-7 and 11-14.

In addition to the upcoming season, LCTC will host a Theatrical Gala on Sunday, March 28th at Minervas.

"This gala is very important to us," Gill said. "Since we are a non-profit agency, we need all the help that we can get. The amount of support that we get through that gala is tremendous. We are excited to be able to do it again this year."

The doors to the gala will open at 5 p.m. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m.

Back by popular demand, LCTC will perform Yankton's version of the "David Letterman Show" featuring Chris Hilson, with the Mike Hilson Band under the direction of Terry Winter.

This year, it is going to be a little different because we are going to mock (Letterman's) retirement," Peitz said.

There will also be a live auction, silent auction and dessert auction.

"The community and the board are the ones that donate all the items," Peitz said. "All the profits for that go right back into the Theatre toward royalties for plays, updates in the theatre everything."

Tickets for the gala can be urchased by contacting the LCTC Box Office at 605-665-4711 or 605-661-8900.

To purchase a membership for the LCTC's upcoming season, call the Theatre at 605-665-4711. For more information, check out LCTC's www.lctcyankton.com.
