Student Entrepreneur Set For 1M Cups

Michael Helgerson, a student at the University of South Dakota and one of three finalists from the student competition portion of the 2014 Wire Me Awake entrepreneurship conference last year, will be the featured speaker at this week's 1 Million Cups meeting at 9 a.m. Wednesday at the Avera Professional Pavillion, Yankton.

Helgerson will speak about his business, We Connect U, and the challenges he has faced this last year.

The public is invited to attend this meeting.

Also, the next Vermillion/Yankton Townhall will be March 18 in Vermillion. The location is yet to be determined.

D18 Legislative Cracker Barrel Saturday

The second District 18 Legislative Cracker Barrel of the 2015 session will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 21, at the Avera Professional Pavilion, 409 Summit, Yankton.

Sen. Bernie Hunhoff and Reps. Jean Hunhoff and Mike Stevens are scheduled to attend.

This event is sponsored by the Governmental Affairs Committee of the Yankton Chamber of Commerce.

The final cracker barrel of the session is set for March 7.

Funding Available For Housing Needs

PIERRE — Approximately $2.7 million is available for funding during the February 2015 application cycle for the South Dakota Housing Opportunity Fund (HOF). HOF can be utilized to assist communities in addressing their local housing needs.

Any for-profit, nonprofit entity, tribal government, housing authority, political subdivision of South Dakota or agency of South Dakota is eligible to apply for funding.

The Housing Opportunity Fund may be used for new construction or the purchase and rehabilitation of rental or homeownership housing. It may also be used for homelessness prevention activities, community land trusts and housing preservation — including home repair or to make homes more accessible to individuals with disabilities.

Applications from organizations are due Feb. 27, 2015, at 5 p.m. CST. More information on the HOF Program and the application form is available on South Dakota Housing Development Authority's website, www.sdhdha.org, under Housing Development, Housing Opportunity Fund or by calling 605-773-3181.

Awards are anticipated to be announced in May. For more information on the Housing Opportunity Fund, contact Chas Olson, Housing Development officer, at chas@sdhdha.org.

The Housing Opportunity Fund Program was created through Senate Bill 235 during the 2013 legislative session.

Numerous inquiries coming in to committee members indicate there will be a very large crowd of farmers on hand next Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons for the Farmers' Educational Exchange, which will be held in the city hall auditorium. The sessions are open to the public and farmers from all over the Yankton area.

An announcement was made today that the Rev. Clay E. Palmer, of Walla Walla, Washington, had accepted the call extended by the Congregational church of Yankton to become its pastor, succeeding Dr. H. H. Lindermann, who resigned last September. Rev. Palmer spent a week here late in January and early February, on invitation of the local church membership.

Eagle Award Nominees Sought

BROOKINGS — The South Dakota Newspaper Association is accepting nominees for the 2015 SDNA Eagle Award. Established in 2002, this award is given to recognize an individual, group or organization that has demonstrated outstanding efforts to protect and enhance openness in government.

"South Dakota has made significant strides in advancing the ideals of open government in the past decade, thanks in large part to people who have pressed for transparency and accountability from our elected officials," said SDNA First Amendment Committee Chairman Tim Waltner, publisher of the Freeman Courier. "Since 2001, the SDNA Award has recognized some of those individuals, including government officials and citizens who have spoken out and stood firmly for the ideals of a well-informed citizenry that is at the heart of our democracy."

"While we've made progress in protecting the "public's right to know," the ongoing efforts of citizens, government officials and journalists are essential to ensure that a "government of the people, by the people, for the people" are more than just part a famous speech by Abraham Lincoln," Waltner said.

The SDNA First Amendment Committee welcomes nominees for the 2015 Eagle Award to honor the efforts of those who have demonstrated their commitment to the ideals of open government.

The first SDNA Eagle Award was given to the 2001 South Dakota Supreme Court for its efforts helping open the Supreme Court to media cameras starting in August 2001. Recipients of SDNA Eagle Award also include Mitchell School Board member Rodney Hall (2003), South Dakota States Attorney Larry Long (2004), Yankton County Commissioner Brian Hunhoff (2005), Codington County State's Attorney Vince Foley (2006), state Sen. Jason Gant and the staff of the South Dakota State University Collegian (2007), state Sen. Nancy Turbak Berry (2008), state Sen. Dave Knudson (2009), Sioux Falls resident Gordon Heber (2010) and state Sen. Al Novstrup (2012).

Any individual, group or organization who had demonstrated commitment to the ideals of open government in South Dakota is eligible to be nominated. Nominations for the 2015 SDNA Eagle Award should be submitted in writing and sent to: SDNA Eagle Award, South Dakota Newspaper Association, 1125 32nd Ave., Brookings, SD 57006. The deadline for nominations is March 13, 2015.

Contact SDNA General Manager David Bordewyk for more information (800-658-3697).

Vermillion Library Plans Dr. Seuss Events

VERMILLION — The University of South Dakota Theatre Department will present selections from its upcoming musical "Seussical" at the Edith B. Siegrist Vermillion Public Library is located at 18 Church Street in Vermillion on Monday, March 2, from 4-5 p.m. to commemorate the birthday of Dr. Seuss.

Actors will sing some songs from the show, read Dr. Seuss books and lead activities. In addition to the reading, singing and activities, the Theatre Department will also be providing bookmarks with the dates of the University's performance for the children to take home.

The Theatre Department will be sponsoring a reading challenge to the children that are in attendance. The child that reads the most books in a set period of time will receive four complimentary tickets to the Sunday, April 19, performance as well as get their photo taken with the cast.

There is no cost for this library event, but you should arrive early for the best seats.

The Edith B. Siegrist Vermillion Public Library is located at 18 Church Street in Vermillion. For more information, call the Library at 605-677-7060.
