

'Follow the Son' Preview School Set

Grab your sunglasses and your beach towel and head to the beach for the "Follow the Son" Preschool Preview event at Calvary Kids Preschool. This special event will be held on Friday, Feb. 20, from 10-11 a.m. (for those age 3 by Sept. 1, 2015) and 2-3 p.m. (for those ages 4-5 by Sept. 1, 2015).

This is a wonderful opportunity for children to experience preschool as they complete a craft project, enjoy a snack, and see the SmartBoard in action alongside our current preschoolers at this fun-filled, beach-themed event created just for them.

Space is limited, so please contact the Calvary office at (605) 665-5594 to register. The event will be held at Calvary Kids Preschool, 2407 Broadway.

Understanding Who Jesus Is

BY RALPH PORTER
Calvary Baptist Church

A small girl, reading a children's Bible story book, asked a significant question: "How do I tell the difference between Jesus and God? They look alike to me!"

Jesus responds to Philip's question by telling him, "Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father."

That's the conclusion John wants us to come to when we look at Jesus in his gospel. He wants us to understand who Jesus is.

Who is Jesus? No more fundamental question has ever been asked! Who he is has everything to do with his actions, with the message he proclaims, and with our destiny. We must answer the question

"Who is Jesus?" For many religious whole lot more! He's more than we ever bargained for!

In the conclusion to his gospel, John explains his purpose for writing: "Jesus did many other miraculous signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. But these are written that people, Jesus is a good man who taught moral lessons and showed us how to do good to others. For John, who Jesus is forms the basis for everything he tells us about Jesus! John wants us to understand that Jesus is everything we ever hoped for in a Savior—plus a you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name" (John 20:30-31, NIV). His book provides evidence that Jesus is who he claims to be and that we should trust Him.

John introduces his theme by telling us who Jesus is and what He came to do (John 1:1-18). He insists that Jesus is God, come to earth in human form to reveal what God is like. All who trust Jesus receive eternal life, forgiveness of sins, and the right to become God's children.

Like Pilate, each of us must decide who Jesus is and how we will respond to Him. Our personal response to him doesn't change who he is, but it will change our life. C. S. Lewis rightly observed that there are only three choices: he's either a liar, a lunatic, or God. If he's a liar, he should be

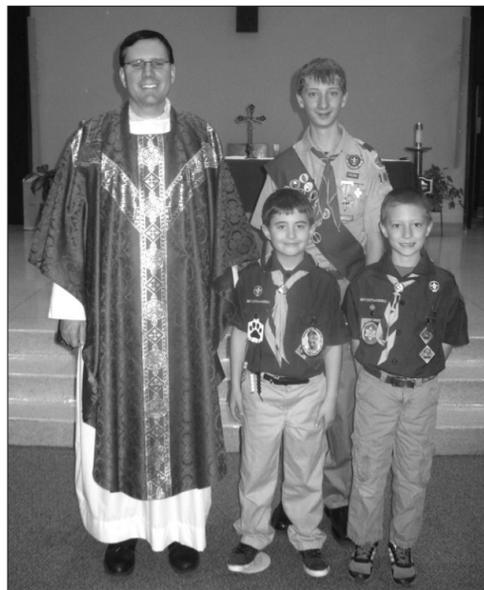

Interactive Presentation Of Saint John's Bible Set For MMC

The Benedictine Institute for Leadership, Ethics and Social Justice announces Tim Ternes as the 2015 Spring Benedictine Lecture presenter. Ternes, director of The Saint John's Bible, will be presenting "From Inspiration to Illumination: The Saint John's Bible, An Artistic Creation of Benedictine Values" at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 24, in Marian Auditorium at Mount Marty College.

In 1998, Saint John's Abbey and University commissioned renowned calligrapher Donald Jackson to produce a hand-written Bible. This work of art unites an ancient Benedictine tradition with the technology and vision of today, illuminating the Word of God for a new millennium. During the presentation by Ternes, those in attendance will have the opportunity to see, hear and learn more about The Saint John's Bible, the first handwritten, monumental illuminated Bible created in the modern era. Through video, reproductions and rich images, participants are guided through the story of The Saint John's Bible, learning the processes, tools, methods and materials behind the making of the volumes of the Bible as well as explore several artworks through guided imagery discussions. Attendees will also have the rare opportunity to view selected volumes of The Saint John's Bible following the presentation.

This event is free and open to the public.
