Loberg, Zimmerer Win State Titles

Creighton and Randolph finished fourth and fifth in Class D, each with one state champion, at the Nebraska State Wrestling Tournament, which concluded on Saturday in Omaha.

Creighton scored 71 and Randolph 58 in the tournament. Amherst scored 201 points for team honors. Friend was second at 95.5 points, less than Amherst's first-day total.

Randolph's Dylan Loberg completed an unbeaten season with a 67-second pin of Clearwater-Orchard's Alex Olivan. Loberg finished at 48-0 on the season. Creighton's Garret Zimmerer beat Sandhills-Thedford 12-2 in the 120-pound championship. Zimmerer finished at 39-5 on the season. Randolph's Drew Loberg lost in the championship at 138 pounds, dropping a 16-4 major decision to Nebraska Christian's Jaydon Elge. Elge finished at 37-0, while Loberg finished at 39-3.

Also for Creighton, heavyweight Austyn Larsen (24-4) finished fourth. Connor Hazen (113) and Zachary Hazen (126) each finished coach Mark Stoebner was also pleased with how thing went on Saturday.

In Class C, Crofton-Bloomfield's Lucas Miller finished fourth at 120 pounds.

Region 3B

Things have really come together for us," said Mark Stoebner. "Sending 10 guvs to state and six as region championss really makes me proud.

Coach Stoebner also recieved the Region 3B coach of the year award, which is voted on by the coaches in the region.

The defending state champion Parkston Trojans finished second overallon Saturday, and also qualified ten members for the state meet.

Of the Trojans ten qualifiers, three were individual champions including Blake Beitz (145), Wes Dvorak (170), and Austin Bertram (220). Other Trojan team members who had their tickets punched to Rapid City are Logan Mahoney (120), Kyler Holzbauer (132), Dawson Semmler (138), Lucas Beitz (152), Austin Ripp (160), Dillon Stadlman (182), and Mile Semmler (195).

Parkston senior Wes Dvorak entered Saturday ranked first overall in the state in the 170 pound weight class.

When it's regions, it comes down to win or go home," said Dvorak. "I just tried to trust myself and not try and do to much."

Although the Trojans qualified wrestlers in 10 of 14 weight classes, they still want to polish a few things before next weekends state meet.

"Today did not go quite as well as we had hoped," said Parkston head coach James Boehmer. "We have a hardworking group of guys, and we really need to get after it this week to get ready for state."

As defending champions, the Trojans have similar aspirations for this year's state meet. "We are going to Rapid City with the same expectations as last year," said Dvorak. "We want to win it again and nothing less. Kimball-White Lake-Platte-

Geddes also qualafied five members including Jackosn Nockels (113), Ty Namanny (120), Jesse Kirsch (170), Austin Moore (285), and Turner Blasius, who won the 195 pound weight class.

Other area teams with qualifiers include Wagner, Ben Soukup (113), Trevor Lensing (182), Truman Ashes, and Andes Central who featured two state qualifiers in Zach Rucktaeschel (145) and Trezen Doren (285).

The Class B State Wrestling Tournaments will take place in Rapid City on Feb. 27-28 at the Rushmore Plaza Civic Center.
